Social Work and Integration in Immigrant Communities Kathleen Valtonen,2016-03-03 There has been a marked rise in global migration with many former countries of emigration becoming immigration destinations As a result of this social workers increasingly encounter immigrant clients and are called upon to work in their communities At the same time in the field of research theories conceptual frames perspectives and discourse have materialized and evolved to make sense of contemporary events Social work professionals researchers and students must therefore need to be apprised of current thinking research and discourse in the field of integration Valtonen familiarizes the reader with the variation in national policies institutional arrangements and service responses which all provide rich contrasts and insights into a breadth of policy possibilities Since macro level developments in migration carry direct implications for social work as a discipline and a profession with a central stake and role in immigrant wellbeing this book provides salient information to help with visioning in the profession defining appropriate and concerted responses and building robust standing in the field as well as promoting the linking of disciplinary and multidisciplinary research with practice

Cultivating Leader Identity and Capacity in Students from Diverse Backgrounds Kathy L. Guthrie,Tamara Bertrand Jones,Laura Osteen,Shouping Hu,2013-10-09 A goal of higher education is to develop students into leaders capable of guiding modern society Too often though the leadership development curricula does not address the diversity of student populations a critical failing if the new leaders are to respond comprehensively to societal issues By addressing the intersection of undergraduate leadership development and student diversity this volume provides insight on effective programming and intentional interventions offering paths to optimize the development of all students identity and capacity to lead Table of Contents A Changing World Calling for New Leaders Defining Leadership Language and Guiding Models Diverse Student Identity and Capacity Development Environment Matters Exemplary Programs and Characteristics of Effective Practices Implications for Policy Practice and Future Research This is Volume 39 Issue 4 of the Jossey Bass publication ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph in the series is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education problem based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication

Communicative Understandings of Women's Leadership Development Elesha L. Ruminski,Annette Holba,2012-01-01 Communicative Understandings of Women s Leadership Development From Ceilings of Glass to Labyrinth Paths edited by Elesha L Ruminski and Annette M Holba intertwines the disciplines of communication studies leadership studies and women

s studies to offer theoretical and practical reflection about women s leadership development in academic organizational and political contexts Women s leadership development exists at the intersection of consciousness raising communication competence and education to increase one s knowledge and practice of leadership which makes the weaving together of these three disciplines important Thus Communicative Understandings of Women s Leadership Development claims a space for women s leadership studies and acknowledges the paradigmatic shift from discussing women s leadership using the glass ceiling phenomenon to what Eagly and Carli 2007 identify as the labyrinth of leadership Recognizing this metaphoric shift is crucial because many women now develop leadership amid the postmodern flux of organizational change hierarchical top down systems are being eroded in lieu of transformational collaborative even improvisational leadership processes Women s leadership studies is emerging as a fruitful interdisciplinary area that reframes the debate about whether we live work and learn within a third wave feminist or post feminist context While this area might include feminist theorizing it also might not emphasize such epistemologies For this reason Ruminski and Holba s edited collection explores and highlights a variety of feminist and non feminist intersections and is thus an important and timely contribution to both marking where we are with women s leadership development in higher education and how women can further develop themselves as leaders

Social Justice and Systemic Family Therapy Training Lindsey A. Nice, Christie Eppler, 2023-05-31 The book examines the lived experiences of systemic family therapy educators It addresses the issues of power and justice that they face in family therapy training programs including their teaching experiences with students interactions with faculty and challenges within academic institutions It describes how family therapy programs attempt to incorporate cultural awareness with mixed results e g focusing only on how to work with diverse clients or not supporting faculty from across social locations The book explores the ways in which family therapy educators with intersecting marginalized identities continue to be oppressed across different areas of academia The book addresses issues of power that systemic family therapy educators face within the academia itself at three different levels Personal interactions with students that create more complete understanding of issues of power Professional interactions with colleagues that provide support and accountability Political interventions aimed at changing the larger academic institution Chapters focus on countering unjust practices in academic settings Authors reflect on personal experiences across these three levels and then offer concrete suggestions for intervention These include teaching experiences or meaningful interactions with students that support empowerment or increased awareness relationships with colleagues that promote accountability and growth and needed changes or challenges to the larger structure of academia Social Justice and Systemic Family Therapy Training is an essential resource for clinicians therapists and practitioners as well as researchers professors and graduate students in family studies clinical psychology and public health as well as all interrelated disciplines
