Lessons in Educational Equality Jody Heymann, Adele Cassola, 2012-02-17 All children and youth deserve the opportunity to improve their life chances by acquiring the knowledge and skills that will help them thrive in the future As the world lags far behind the Millennium Development and Education for All goals swift targeted and effective action is needed to improve both access and quality in education

Creating Effective Teaching and Learning Spaces: Shaping Futures and Envisioning Unity in Diversity and Transformation Zilungile Lungi Sosibo, Eunice Ivala, 2021-09-07 Higher education in post apartheid South Africa was always likely to attract academic interest and yet there remains a dearth of research on creating teaching and learning spaces suitable for students from diverse backgrounds Using examples from higher education institutions across the Southern African Developing Community SADC region this volume explores the ways teaching and learning spaces are being used to advance the transformation agenda of higher education in these regions and provides concrete recommendations for the future The book is sure to appeal to academics from a variety of disciplines from African African American and ethnic studies to education and sociology It will be of particular interest to teacher trainers administrators and policy makers working in higher education and anyone else with a stake in managing cultural diversity in education

The New Black Middle Class in South Africa Roger Southall, 2016 Provides the most comprehensive account since the early 1960s of South Africa's black middle class 2016 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title The rise of the black middle class is one of the most visible aspects of post apartheid society in South Africa Yet while it has been a major actor in the country's democratic reshaping analysis of its role has been all but lacking Rather the image presented by the media has been of black diamonds consumers of the products of advanced industrial economies and of corrupt tenderpreneurs who use their political connections to obtain contracts This book seeks to complicate that picture with a much needed analysis that recounts its historical development in colonial society prior to 1994 before examining the size

shape and structure of the new black middle class in contemporary South Africa and its relation to its counterparts in the Global South Roger Southall is Professor Emeritus in Sociology University of the Witwatersrand Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Botswana Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Jacana

Department of Agriculture, 1913 Dictionary Use and Dictionary Teaching Annette Klosa-Kückelhaus, Martina Nied Curcio, 2024-10-07 Foreign language learners often use electronic dictionaries or other information from the Internet to solve language problems However they seem to have great difficulty using dictionaries and online resources appropriately profitably and successfully Their teachers also seem unfamiliar with the current dictionary landscape and sometimes insist on using a single monolingual print dictionary in class As a result dictionaries are often banned from the classroom altogether However in today s digital global and multilingual world appropriate competence in the use of dictionaries is an essential communicative strategy Dictionary didactics should thus be integrated into foreign language teaching Against this background the contributions in this volume discuss how dictionary use can be promoted and integrated into the classroom They also consider how modern lexical resources and dictionaries should be designed to support learners Last but not least they present ideas for educational policies that could promote the use of dictionaries and lexicographic online resources This volume offers important insights to language teachers authors of language teaching materials practical lexicographers and other applied linguists Nelson's Encyclopaedia ,1907 Rethinking White Societies in Southern Africa Duncan Money, Danelle van Zyl-Hermann, 2020-02-12 This book showcases new research by emerging and established scholars on white workers and the white poor in Southern Africa Rethinking White Societies in Southern Africa challenges the geographical and chronological limitations of existing scholarship by presenting case studies from Angola Mozambique South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe that track the fortunes of nonhegemonic whites during the era of white minority rule Arguing against prevalent understandings of white society as uniformly wealthy or culturally homogeneous during this period it demonstrates that social class remained a salient element throughout the twentieth century how Southern Africa s white societies were often divided and riven with tension and how the resulting social political and economic complexities animated white minority regimes in the region Addressing themes such as the class based disruption of racial norms and practices state surveillance and interventions and their failures towards nonhegemonic whites and the opportunities and limitations of physical and social mobility the book mounts a forceful argument for the regional consideration of white societies in this historical context Centrally it extends the path breaking insights emanating from scholarship on racialized class identities from North America to the African context to argue that race and class cannot be considered independently in Southern Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students of southern African studies African history and the history of race
