The Domestic Terrorist Threat Background And Issues For Congress:

The Domestic Terrorist Threat Jerome P. Bjelopera, 2013-06-19 The emphasis of counterterrorism policy in the United States since Al Qaeda's attacks of September 11 2001 9 11 has been on jihadist terrorism However in the last decade domestic terrorists people who commit crimes within the homeland and draw inspiration from U S based extremist ideologies and movements have killed American citizens and damaged property across the country Not all of these criminals have been prosecuted under terrorism statutes This latter point is not meant to imply that domestic terrorists should be taken any less seriously than other terrorists

The Domestic Terrorist Threat Jerome P. Bjelopera, 2012-11-05 The emphasis of counterterrorism policy in the United States since Al Qaeda's attacks of September 11 2001 9 11 has been on jihadist terrorism However in the last decade domestic terrorists people who commit crimes within the homeland and draw inspiration from U S based extremist ideologies and movements have killed American citizens and damaged property across the country Not all of these criminals have been prosecuted under terrorism statutes This latter point is not meant to imply that domestic terrorists should be taken any less seriously than other terrorists The Department of Justice DOJ and the Federal Bureau of Investigation FBI do not officially list domestic terrorist organizations but they have openly delineated domestic terrorist threats These include individuals who commit crimes in the name of ideologies supporting animal rights environmental rights anarchism white supremacy anti government ideals black separatism and anti abortion beliefs Five discussion topics in this report may help explain domestic terrorism's significance for policymakers

- 1 Level of Activity Domestic terrorists have been responsible for orchestrating more than two dozen incidents since 9 11 and there appears to be a growth in anti government extremist activity as measured by watchdog groups in the last several years
- 2 Use of Nontraditional Tactics A large number of domestic terrorists do not necessarily use tactics such as suicide bombings or airplane hijackings
- 3 Exploitation of the Internet Domestic terrorists much like their jihadist analogues are often Internet savvy and use the medium as a resource for their operations
- 4 Decentralized Nature of the Threat Many domestic terrorists rely on the concept of leaderless resistance This involves two levels of activity On an operational level militant underground ideologically motivated cells or individuals engage in illegal activity without any participation in or direction from an organization that maintains traditional leadership positions and membership rosters On another level the above ground public face the political wing of a domestic terrorist movement may focus on propaganda and the dissemination of ideology engaging in protected speech
- 5 Prison Radicalization Prison has been highlighted as an arena in which terrorist radicalization can occur Some prison gangs delve into radical or extremist ideologies that motivate domestic terrorists and in a number of instances these ideologies are integral to fashioning cohesive group identities within prison walls It must be reiterated however that even for gangs that exhibit these ideological dimensions criminal enterprises such as drug trafficking not radical beliefs largely drive their activities
