The Coen Brothers Dan Jolin, 2024-10-10 Gangster movie Western film noir rom com screwball musical even the Biblical epic There are few genres left untouched and untwisted by sibling visionaries Joel and Ethan Coen Since 1984's Blood Simple the inscrutable brothers have effortlessly forged their own cinematic path avoiding prevailing trends while crafting bold stylish and witty movies that feel fresh and distinctive despite being deeply rooted in their creators filmic passion and knowledge This is a definitive guide to that path bringing the reader through Joel and Ethan's 20 features not counting the mezzanine and exploring the themes the tropes the gags the familiar faces while also taking in all the Coen curios that litter this quirkily winding byway From Texas to Minnesota from Homer to Shakespeare from Bluegrass to Busby Berkeley from wrestling to bowling from lost hats to severed toes this book covers everything that one might reasonably consider to use a word that would likely make Joel and Ethan wince Coenesque And then some That's Not English Erin Moore,2015-03-24 An expat's witty and insightful exploration of English and American cultural differences through the lens of language that will leave readers gobsmacked In That's Not English the seemingly superficial differences between British and American English open the door to a deeper exploration of a historic and fascinating cultural divide In each of the thirty chapters Erin Moore explains a different word we use that says more about us than we think For example Quite exposes the tension between English reserve and American enthusiasm in Moreish she addresses our snacking habits In Partner she examines marriage equality in Pull the theme is dating and sex Cheers is about drinking and Knackered covers how we raise our kids The result is a cultural history in miniature and an expatriate's survival guide American by birth Moore is a former book editor who specialized in spotting British books including Eats Shoots Leaves for the US market She's spent the last seven years living in England with her Anglo American husband and a small daughter with an English accent That's Not English is the perfect companion for modern Anglophiles and the ten million British and American travelers who visit one another's countries each year The Mindful Classroom Tru Leverette,2022-02-10 The Mindful Classroom Constructive Conversations on Race Identity and Justice helps teachers and discussion facilitators practice and teach mindfulness and movement techniques that can deeply enhance conversations about race identity and social justice furthering social justice efforts at their most basic stage person to person from the face to face or online classroom to the community at large Mindfulness and movement practices can help us prepare for and engage in difficult conversations and the more conscious we become of our emotional mental and physical landscape the more we are able to engage proactively rather than reactively consciously rather than automatically We become able to act or not act rather than react in situations with others The topics of race and social justice are timely and they are triggers Productive engagement with these topics demands we remain mindful of how we may be triggered and how we may be triggering others it demands we pay attention to ourselves at a fundamental level and it demands that we grant such attention to others Space Nomads: Set a Course for Mars Camomile Hixon,2021-06-22 Transform Your Mind Expand Your Universe Reach for Mars Imagine a better tomorrow with interstellar essays and art drawing on the aspirational futurism that fuels Star Trek The Martian and 2001 A Space Odyssey renowned contemporary artist Camomile Hixon reminds us that by reaching for the stars we can chase our full potential beyond Earth while also transforming ourselves and our understanding of the Pale Blue Dot we call home We stand at the threshold of interplanetary travel SpaceX rockets are now routinely leaving Earth and NASA's new Perseverance rover is searching for signs of ancient life on the Red Planet Not since the moon landing in 1969 has space or the promise of a transformational future for humankind felt so close Do we dare to reach for it Yearning to know the stars has long united humanity and ignited our imaginations And while here on Earth we grapple with deep unrest economic struggle political upheaval gender discrimination pandemics racial tensions climate change the potential of a colony on Mars has sparked a new universal hope and a heightened sense of collective purpose as we discover our ultimate destiny beyond Earth's orbit Celebrating the limitless potential of space and the human spirit Hixon's indelible essays and fantastical works of art invite us to imagine a transcendent future where we reach together for absolute freedom unconditional love and wellness on our grand quest for world peace Weaving science history art and philosophy with meditations on higher consciousness inspired by seeing the Earth from Space Space Nomads is a book of unbridled optimism for the future

The Dark Interval Padraic Killeen, 2022-05-05 Invoking key concepts from the philosophical writings of Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben The Dark Interval examines a subtle but distinct iconography of passivity stillness and profound self affection that recurs across noir films of every era In doing so it identifies the emergence of a specific cinematic figure the intervallic noir protagonist exposed to the redemptive force of his or her own passion Significantly the book contextualises the iconography of film noir in relation to prior art historical visual traditions in particular earlier representations of melancholia and the saturnine locating noir against a much broader canvas than has been the norm Examining central noir films of the classic and modern era The Killers The Man Who Wasn't There as well as films at the peripheries of noir from Jacques Tourneur's Cat People to Wong Kar Wai's 2046 the book locates a series of iconographic gestures performance traditions and affective tonalities at once specific to noir and yet resonant with a deeper cultural and philosophical heritage It is a meditation that uniquely grapples with the look and the feel of noir and which dares to detect a unique quality of beatitude that runs through a certain strain of noir films In doing so it illuminates why film noir remains one of the most provocative and affecting visual milieus of our time

Your Journey to Peace Rosemary McCarthy,2016-10-21

Intertwined with Rosemary McCarthys personal journey of shifting from an angry frustrated person blaming others for her unhappiness to someone who now lives content with herself and in harmony with others Your Journey to Peace brings the esoteric to the practical and maps out how to become your Best Self and feel empowered in all areas of your life It also explains Why we are the way we are individually and collectively and how we got this way How we find peace within ourselves by making peace in our relationships and all situations That God does not allow for suffering We create it by upholding dualistic concepts of me and you and us and them that we embraced at our beginnings and before form The precursor to the Big Bang was the need for form to play out those dualistic concepts we chose at our beginnings all our issues stem from those original concepts based on ideas of separation rather than unity That understanding time makes the seven day creation model valid What are the extraterrestrials origins How we can reconcile the growing evidence of our past association with the ETs and our scriptures and beliefs Our need to embrace the Indigenous peoples connection to Gaia That we chose to be here at this time of the Shift to bring about our personal and Gaias Ascensions Enlightened Self-Interest Thomas J. Bussen, Henry Biggs, Tim Bono, Timothy Bono, 2024 In the face of entrenched politics in a polarized society ineffective economic policy in an unequal society and environmental inaction in a world that is burning many well intentioned people are left feeling helpless dispirited and most importantly apathetic before an immovable force They recognize the need for structural legislative and policy changes to address the legacy of slavery and deeply rooted inequality in the United States in particular but they still may yearn to do something as individuals to promote change in these areas What changes can individuals make in their personal lives that could foster a more civil equitable and sustainable society Recovering lawyer and Miami University business professor Dr Thomas J Bussen Washington University s Dr Timothy Bono and longtime academic practitioner Dr Henry Biggs address this question in a meticulously researched and empirically rooted book Together they present a sharp critique of America s ruthlessly self interested culture while offering a holistic understanding of enlightened self interest as an actionable alternative They first identify how our own taken for granted assumptions and societally sanctioned competitions for money power and fame promote selfishness personal alienation and widespread inequality Crucially however they then propose a simple specific and immediately actionable alternative acting with enlightened self interest in which self and other interests merge fluently With the knowledge that individual actions are not enough they ask the reader this question For all that we cannot do is it not time to ask what each of us can do Is it not time to do the hard work to move the proverbial needle even if it does little more than quiver Is it not time to know with a certainty that is rare in this complex and confusing world that to change any life is to change a universe With humility with patience and empathy for self and others and with a clear lens through which to view each of our worlds let us shake the foundations on which we stand
