 , 1742 Hope from a Body in Pain Lena Maria Lorenz, 2025-12-03 This book explores the phenomenon of hope in the context of long term ill health It brings medicine psychology and theology in dialogue with the voices of those with first hand experience of chronic pain The chapters reflect on existing psychological literature on hope the theological perspectives of three key figures Augustine Aquinas and Moltmann and interview based empirical research with persons who live with chronic pain In a theological framework hope is a complex and dynamic force which incorporates and yet goes beyond any understandings within the cognitive behavioural framework of psychology The author challenges a highly individualistic and positivistic view on hope and argues for hope as intuitive reflective active and communal The book will be of particular interest to scholars working at the intersection of medicine psychology and theology as well as those in the medical
