The Essential Haiku Versions Of Basho Buson And Issa:

The Essential Haiku Robert Hass, 1995-08 American readers have been fascinated since their exposure to Japanese culture late in the nineteenth century with the brief Japanese poem called the hokku or haiku. The seventeen syllable form is rooted in a Japanese tradition of close observation of nature of making poetry from subtle suggestion. Infused by its great practitioners with the spirit of Zen Buddhism, the haiku has served as an example of the power of direct observation to the first generation of American modernist poets like Ezra Pound and William Carlos Williams and also as an example of spontaneity and Zen alertness to the new poets of the 1950s. This definitive collection brings together in fresh translations by an American poet the essential poems of the three greatest haiku masters: Matsuo Basho in the seventeenth century, Yosa Buson in the eighteenth century, and Kobayashi Issa in the early nineteenth century. Robert Hass has written a lively and informed introduction, provided brief examples by each poet of their work in the haibun or poetic prose form, and included informal notes to the poems. This is a useful and inspiring addition to the Essential Poets series. Essential Haiku

A spirit runs through the interdisciplinary essays of this book: a spirit that lives within them and hovers above them at once intelligent and profoundly simple. Although each essay focuses on a certain topic, whether it is the Buddhist saint Milarepa, the prophet Jeremiah, or the Christian saint Teresa of Avila, whether it is the Israeli-Palestinian conflict or subtleties of the spirit, these essays have penetrable borders that dissolve at the seams and touch each other religiously, philosophically, and psychologically. The use of an interdisciplinary methodology that draws from the wisdom of different disciplines in regard to values such as courage in the face of attacks and integrity in the midst of a worldly environment culminates in a rich source of inspired guidance for everyday life. Mediated Narration in the Digital Age Peter Joseph Gloviczki, 2021-10 Mediated Narration in the Digital Age examines mediated narration from 1991 through 2018. Peter Joseph Gloviczki considers this pivotal period spanning the rise of the World Wide Web through the growth of social media to understand how contemporary media accounts storied everyday life and times of crisis He uses examples across media culture to show that complicated issues benefit from a critical poststructuralist approach to journalism which promotes a communitarian ethos of respect inclusion and dialogue Textual analysis of a wide range of media narratives from a 2012 YouTube clip outlining a time line of the Sandy Hook school shootings to coverage of then newly discovered footage of President Roosevelt in a wheelchair in 2013 to the Cincinnati Enquirer's 2017 piece Seven Days of Heroin illustrate how theoretical concepts work in practice while explaining the new media environment In response to the lack of awareness of news as mediated narration Gloviczki calls for journalists to be aware of their role in meaning making and the attendant ethical responsibilities He provides the analysis essential to effective practice that emphasizes the connection between the individual and the community in order to more fully represent the mediated body

The Motive for Metaphor Henry M. Seiden, 2018-05-08 This book is a small anthology each chapter a kind of meditation on poetry and psychoanalysis on a poem sometimes two on poetry in general on thought itself The poems are beautiful some are contemporary some are classical and well worth a reader's attention The motive for metaphor is the title of a short poem of Wallace Stevens in which he says he is happy with the subtleties of experience He likes what he calls the half colours of quarter things as opposed to the certainties the hard primary reds and blues To grasp and make sense of what is elusive and beautiful that is for the essential and puzzling condition of poetry we are obliged to make metaphors The same is perhaps true of psychoanalysis this is the essential argument of the book The chapters were originally poetry columns that the author wrote for Psychologist Psychoanalyst and Division Review both journals of the Division of Psychoanalysis of the American Psychological Association
