Chariton Review 39.1 Truman State University Press, 2016-06-30 Chariton Review Spring Summer 2016

Catching Homelessness Josephine Ensign, 2025-07-30 At the beginning of the homelessness epidemic in the 1980s Josephine Ensign was a young white Southern Christian wife mother and nurse running a new medical clinic for the homeless in the heart of the South Through her work and intense relationships with patients and co workers her worldview was shattered and after losing her job family and house she became homeless herself She reconstructed her life with altered views on homelessness and on the health care system In Catching Homelessness Ensign reflects on how this work has changed her and how her work has changed through the experience of being homeless providing a piercing look at the homelessness industry nursing and our country's health care safety net

Crossings Jon Kerstetter, 2018-09-04 A searing beautifully told memoir by a Native American doctor on the trials of being a doctor soldier in the Iraq War and then after suffering a stroke that left his life irrevocably changed his struggles to overcome the new limits of his body mind and identity Every juncture in Jon Kerstetter's life has been marked by a crossing from one world into another from civilian to doctor to soldier between healing and waging war and between compassion and hatred of the enemy When an injury led to a stroke that ended his careers as a doctor and a soldier he faced the most difficult crossing of all a recovery that proved as shattering as war itself Crossings is a memoir of an improbable powerfully drawn life one that began in poverty on the Oneida Reservation in Wisconsin but grew by force of will to encompass a remarkable medical practice Trained as an emergency physician Kerstetter's thirst for intensity led him to volunteer in war torn Rwanda Kosovo and Bosnia and to join the Army National Guard His three tours in the Iraq War marked the height of the American struggle there The story of his work in theater which involved everything from saving soldiers lives to organizing the joint U S Iraqi forensics team tasked with identifying the bodies of Saddam Hussein's sons is a bracing unprecedented evocation of a doctor's life at war But war was only the start of Kerstetter's struggle The stroke he suffered upon returning from Iraq led to serious cognitive and physical disabilities His years long recovery impeded by near unbearable pain and complicated by PTSD meant overcoming the perceived limits of his body and mind and reimagining his own capacity for renewal and change It led him not only to writing as a vocation but to a deeper understanding of how healing means accepting a new identity and how that acceptance must be fought for with as much tenacity as any battlefield victory

Portfolio to Go Allan D. Peterkin, 2016-11-14

Preparing a learning portfolio has become a mandatory part of the course work in most clinical professions Students and educators alike sometimes complain that these mandatory assignments become repetitive and uninspired However we all need to be able to speak and write clearly as we work with our colleagues students and those we care for In Portfolio To Go Allan D Peterkin insists that reflective capacity critical thinking creative expression and narrative competence are attributes that should be developed in every health professional regardless of the discipline or specialty Trainees will find over 1000 prompts organized under themes highly relevant to students and educators including those not formally addressed in class such as coping with uncertainty and ambiguity team conflict and resilience through good self care Practical tips for writing effectively and for discussing and evaluating narratives in a helpful respective manner are provided throughout Peterkin is a pioneer in emphasizing patient centred humanistic care and Portfolio To Go will help to train and develop more reflective practitioners

Python Love Shannon Arntfield, 2025-02-13 Python Love weaves together experiences of childhood abuse birth trauma and recovery from the perspective of a medical doctor who is also a mother In this debut collection of visceral originality Shannon Arntfield delves into the many ways in which the body recalls what has been done to it The terror and confusion of unexpected flashbacks is felt alongside the grip of labor contractions a mother near death during childbirth shivers uncontrollably Long breathtaking sequences set within medical facilities during labour and delivery are juxtaposed with spare lyrical reflections on ideas of memory natural spaces implicit love and the relationships between parents and children Full of precise observations and careful renderings Python Love is focused on how the body and mind are inextricably linked how the past can overwhelm and inform the present and how recovery is tied to love and connection
