Ismail Kadare has experienced a life of controversy In his own country and internationally he has been both acclaimed as a writer and condemned as a lackey of the Albanian socialist dictatorship Coming of age after occupation and war Kadare b 1936 belonged to the first generation of new Albanians In a land where writers were routinely imprisoned Kadare produced the most brilliant and subversive works to emerge from socialist Eastern Europe His work brings to an end the century whose literary beginnings were marked by the terror to which Kafka gave his name The inaugural award of the International Man Booker Prize for Literature in 2005 marked an important milestone in the global recognition of Kadare Ironic multi layered and imaginative Kadare s writing is profoundly opposed to ideology Through critical analysis of a representative selection of Kadare s works Peter Morgan explains for a wide audience how Kadare survived and wrote in the repressive Albanian Stalinist environment Peter Morgan is Professor of European Studies at the University of Western Australia

René Cassin and Human Rights Antoine Prost,Jay Winter,2013-05-02 Presents a new interpretation of the history of human rights through the biography of a key player in the movement Radical History Review: Volume 61, Winter 1995 Calvin B. Holder,Dewar MacLeod,1995-04-13 Radical History Review presents innovative scholarship and commentary that looks critically at the past and its history from a non sectarian left perspective RHR scrutinises conventional history and seeks to broaden and advance the discussion of crucial issues such as the role of race class and gender in history British Decolonisation and the Female Middlebrow Novel Anne Wetherilt,2025-09-01 British Decolonisation and the Female Middlebrow Novel offers the first detailed discussion of middlebrow fiction by women writers who personally witnessed the dismantling of the British Empire the intensification of the Cold War and the domestic tensions following the arrival of thousands of migrants from Britain s former colonies Studying selected novels by Cecilie Leslie Elspeth Huxley Mary McMinnies Han Suyin and Kamala Markandaya this study demonstrates that women s middlebrow writing reveals a much deeper engagement with the politics and economics of decolonisation than is usually ascribed to the genre As Anne Wetherilt argues by transcending the politics of domesticity the female middlebrow registers a critique of both Britain s colonial history and mainstream conceptions of decolonisation as a well managed transition from empire to commonwealth As such the middlebrow novel of the immediate post war decades takes us back to a place where the end of empire was imagined rather than denied and the ambiguities of British colonial politics exposed rather than repressed Hollywood Escapes Harry

Novel Configurations Allan H. Pasco, 1994 During a period when the field of literary studies turned away from texts to theory Novel Configurations A Study of French Fiction has become an underground classic Although it proposes a theory that theory is inductive and solidly based in real works of fiction While looking again at significant masterpieces that range from the early nineteenth to the late twentieth centuries from the creations of traditional french writers to that of an Argentine who spent most of his productive life in France Allan H Pasco has perceptively indicted new but valid close readings that have revolutionized our view of these works He suggests that La Chartreuse de Parme is rigorously organized that Balzac was a narrational minimalist that Huysmans developed novelistic strategies that would be played out in the Nouvelle Roman that Proust intended good readers to come away from A la recherche du temps perdu with very different but complementary interpretations that Robbe Grillet s La Jalousie turns on a plot that seems strange only because it takes place in the mind of the narrator From these philologically sophisticated interpretations Pasco lucidly elegantly and wittily points to categories that include all fiction Concentrating on patterns and description on the one hand and external and internal organization on the other Novel configurations proposes a new classification that can be easily taught to novices though it will help even professional readers understand the most complex fictional innovations
