Swaziland Exam Time Table For 2014:

Africa-China-Taiwan Relations, 1949-2020 Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, 2022-07-26 The ongoing tension and hostility between China and Taiwan in Africa are a continuation of the Chinese Civil War 1927 1949 between the forces of the Chinese Communist Party CCP which remained in mainland China and the Kuomintang KMT of the Republic of China ROC which fled to the island of Taiwan In the intervening years China has claimed Taiwan as part of its territory and through persistent and aggressive political and economic efforts convinced much of the world to accept her as the sole and legitimate seat of the Chinese people and government Africa China Taiwan Relations 1949 2020 provides a coherent account of why and how China was able to convince African governments to acquiesce to her claims which have resulted in the expulsion of and the diplomatic isolation of Taiwan on the African continent This volume edited by Sabella Ogbobode Abidde also explains Taiwan's unsuccessful efforts at blunting China's maneuvers It further discusses the endogenous and exogenous factors that swayed African governments to switch their diplomatic allegiance away from Taiwan a country that was for many years an ally and dependable partner in their quest for growth and development Finally the book contains critical assessments of the role and place of China and Taiwan and their current relationship with states and societies on the African continent Annual

Pathways to Development Samuel Hickey, Kunal Sen, 2024 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY BC ND 4.0 International License It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations The puzzle of why some countries are wealthier and more developed than others continues to confound students and practitioners of development alike Whereas earlier grand explanations focused on issues of geography or institutions the second decade of the 21st century finally saw politics arrive centre stage within international development This catalyzed a search to answer the key question under what conditions do governments become committed to and capable of delivering development How can these processes be conceptualized and researched And what if anything can be done to get the politics right for development Pathways to Development draws on a major comparative research effort to present new answers to the question of how politics shapes development It develops and applies a power domains framework across multiple countries in the global South to uncover the political drivers of development across a wide range of policy areas including economic growth gender equity health and education Hickey and Sen find that a country's pathway to development is shaped less by institutional type than by the nature of the politics and power relations that underpinned these institutions and which shape how they actually function in practice within different policy domains Comparative analysis reveals two alternative pathways to developmental outcomes each of which is specific to particular configurations of power The first involves a dominant ruling coalition with a strong developmental vision that faces an existential threat from social forces the second involves competitive settlements within which the short term vision of ruling elites and the politicization of the public bureaucracy are offset by the presence of strong and coherent coalitions within particular policy domains Hickey and Sen use these insights to generate innovative practical suggestions for policy actors seeking to promote inclusive development that are aligned to critical differences in political context

Fiscal Decentralization and Local Finance in Developing Countries Roy Bahl, Richard M. Bird, 2018-03-30 This book draws on experiences in developing countries to bridge the gap between the conventional textbook treatment of fiscal decentralization and the actual practice of subnational government finance The extensive literature about the theory and practice is surveyed and longstanding problems and new questions are addressed It focuses on the key choices that must be made in decentralizing on how economic and political factors shape the choices that countries make and on how by paying more attention to the need for a more comprehensive approach and the critical connections between different components of decentralization reform everyone involved might get more for their money

United States of America Congressional Record, Proceedings and Debates of the 113th Congress Second Session Volume 160 - Part 1, International Trade, Economic Development, and the Vietnamese Economy Cuong Le Van, Van Pham Hoang, Makoto Tawada, 2022-05-03 This volume spotlights some of the most important economic issues confronting today's emerging developing countries The topics studied in the book include the importance of productivity to economic growth international trade and its relationship to productivity immigration and brain drain pollution havens climate change and the carbon tax the effectiveness of foreign aid the efficiency of education and governance Written by some of the most respected scholars in their respective fields the individual chapters apply both economic theory and the most current empirical tools in rigorous but accessible exposition Researchers can find value in the modeling and empirical techniques that can be applied to other countries and datasets Policy makers can benefit from the intellectual foundation on which decisions on important issues can be based and students of international trade economic development and environmental economics can gain knowledge of different country settings that give context to their fields of study

World Malaria Report 2015 World Health Organization, 2016-01-30 The World Malaria Report 2015 assesses global malaria disease trends and changes in the coverage and financing of malaria control programs between 2000 and 2015 It also summarizes progress towards international targets and provides regional and country profiles that summarize trends in each WHO region and each country with malaria The report is produced with the help of WHO regional and country offices ministries of health in endemic countries and a broad range of other partners The data presented are assembled from the 96 countries and territories with ongoing malaria transmission and a further five countries that have recently eliminated malaria Most data are those reported for 2014 and 2015 although in some cases projections have been made into 2015 to assess progress towards targets for 2015 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard).
