Dreamscapes in Italian Cinema Francesco Pascuzzi, Bryan Cracchiolo, 2015-01-21 Dreamscapes in Italian Cinema explores different representations of dreams visions hallucinations and hypnagogic states in Italian film culture covering the works of some of the most significant auteurs in the history of Italian cinema Fellini Pasolini Moretti Bellocchio among others Dreams are discussed both in a filmic context considering the diegetic and formal techniques employed to construct and represent them and as allegories or metaphors in a broader cultural political and social sense the film industry itself as the proverbial dream factory and dreams as hopes aspirations or altogether parallel universes for example The book covers works released over different decades and spanning multiple genres drama gothic film horror comedy and it is intended to shed light on a topic that is as suggestive as it is insufficiently studied New York Magazine, 1985-10-21 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Women Times Three Kathleen Gregory Klein, 1995 The essays authors are not only widely published scholar critics of mystery detective fiction but also dedicated fans of the genre Familiar with the full scope of mystery fiction they bring insight and enthusiasm to their writing

Hollywood South Linda Thurman, 2016-10-15 A studio insider reveals the dramatic story of politics conspiracy and crime behind Louisiana's film industry boom From her work in Los Angeles to her role as an executive with Emerald Bayou Studios Linda Thurman had a front row seat to the tumultuous beginnings of Hollywood South She knows first hand how a conspiracy to manipulate the Louisiana film industry resulted in prison terms for film executive Malcolm Petal and state official Mark Smith In what reads like a modern day crime novel Thurman tells the full story from the chairman's office of a Hollywood studio to the corridors of the Louisiana legislature Part memoir and part expos Hollywood South sheds light on the shadowy and convoluted relationship between politics and entertainment in both Hollywood and Louisiana

The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema Daisuke Miyao, 2014 The reality of transnational innovation and dissemination of new technologies including digital media has yet to make a dent in the deep seated culturalism that insists on reinscribing a divide between the West and Japan The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema aims to counter this trend toward dichotomizing the West and Japan and to challenge the pervasive culturalism of today's film and media studies Featuring twenty essays each authored by a leading researcher in the field this volume addresses productive debates about where Japanese cinema is and where Japanese cinema is going at the period of crisis of national boundary under globalization It reevaluates the position of Japanese cinema within the discipline of cinema and media studies and beyond and situates Japanese cinema within the broader fields of transnational film history Likewise it examines the materiality of Japanese cinema scrutinizes cinema's relationship to other media and identifies the specific practices of film production and reception As a whole the volume fosters a dialogue between Japanese scholars of Japanese cinema film scholars of Japanese cinema based in Anglo American and European countries film scholars of non Japanese cinema film archivists film critics and filmmakers familiar with film scholarship A comprehensive volume that grasps Japanese cinema under the rubric of the global and also fills the gap between Japanese and non Japanese film studies and between theories and practices The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema challenges and responds to the major developments underfoot in this rapidly changing field New York Magazine, 1985-10-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Place, Setting, Perspective Eleanor Andrews, 2014-09-26 Place Setting Perspective examines the films of the Italian filmmaker Nanni Moretti from a fresh viewpoint employing the increasingly significant research area of space within a filmic text The book is conceived with the awareness that space cannot be studied only in aesthetic or narrative terms social political and cultural aspects of narrated spaces are equally important if a thorough appraisal is to be achieved of an oeuvre such as Moretti's which is profoundly associated with socio political commentary and analysis After an exploration of various existing frameworks of narrative space in film the book offers a particular definition of the term based on the notions of Place Setting and Perspective Place relates to the physical aspect of narrative space and specifically involves cityscapes landscapes interiors and exteriors in the real world Setting concerns genre characteristics of narrative space notably its differentiated use in melodrama detective stories fantasy narratives and gender based scenarios Perspective encompasses the point of view taken optically by the camera which supports the standpoint of Moretti's personal philosophy expressed through the aesthetic aspects which he employs to create narrative space The study is based on a close textual analysis of Moretti's eleven major feature films to date using the formal film language of mise en scene cinematography editing and sound The aim is to show how Moretti selects organizes constructs assembles and manipulates the many elements of narrative space into an entire work of art to enable meanings and pleasures for the spectator The Europeanness of European Cinema Mary Harrod, Mariana Liz, Alissa Timoshkina, 2014-12-19 From The Artist to The White Ribbon from Oscar to Palme d'Or winning productions European filmmaking is more prominent world wide than ever before This book identifies the distinctive character of European cinema both in films and as a critical concept asking what place does European cinema have in an increasingly globalized world Including in depth analyses of production and reception contexts as well as original readings of key European films from leading experts in the field it re negotiates traditional categories such as auteurism art cinema and national cinemas As the first publication to explore Europeanness in cinema this book refocuses and updates historically significant areas of study in relation to this term Leading scholars in European cinema including Thomas Elsaesser Tim Bergfelder Anne Jackel Lucy Mazdon and Ginette Vincendeau acknowledge the transnational character of European filmmaking whilst also exploring the oppositions between European and Hollywood filmmaking considering the value of the European label in the circulation of films within and beyond the continent The Europeanness of European Cinema makes a lively timely intervention in the fields
