Immersion Karen Throsby, 2016-07-01 Immersion is about the extreme sport of marathon swimming Drawing on extensive auto ethnographic data Immersion explores the embodied and social processes of becoming a marathon swimmer and investigates how social belonging is produced and policed Using marathon swimming as a lens this foundation provides the basis for an exploration of what constitutes the good body in contemporary neoliberal society across a range of sites including charitable swimming fatness gender and health The book argues that the self representations of marathon swimming are at odds with its lived realities and that this reflects the entrenched and limited discursive resources available for thinking about the sporting body in the wider social and cultural context The book is aimed primarily at readers at undergraduate level and upwards with an interest in sociology the sociology of the body the sociology of sport gender and the sociology of health and illness

The Poetry of Real Life: a New Edition, Much Enlarged and Improved, Etc Henry ELLISON (Poet.), 1844

Elegant extracts ... Originally compiled by the Rev. V. K. A new edition ... prepared by J. G. Percival Vicesimus KNOX, 1842

The News from Arkansas Valerie Katz, 2019-08-05 I was a California girl My children were unofficially forbidden to move more than 1 1 2 hours from their mother How did I end up in Arkansas I blame Eric Estrada After purchasing our new home in Arkansas it was a full year before we could actually move We endured the comment Your moving where and the looks that went with it by our California friends for that entire year So this started out as e mails to friends and family to let them know all the strange and amusing differences in our new world Many of them wanted to know

Charles J. Rzepka,1999 The Romantic poetas exemplified by Wordsworth Coleridge and Keatsis attracted to and made anxious by two opposite ideas of the self On the one hand he identifies with the inner self as a mind wholly at one with its perceptions and with the world as an image within it On the other hand since this inner self is wholly private the poet turns to others for confirmation of its reality either literally in direct confrontations or figuratively in the voice and workmanship of his text Because his dependence on others for a sense of his own reality jeopardizes the poet s feelings of self possession however he tries to minimize this threat by manipulating of preempting others responses to him Previous discussions of the Romantic self have focused on the self as a mental power immanent in the vision of the world it shapes Charles Rzepka now draws our attention to the poet s attitude toward the self as socially formed and confirmed and the effects of this attitude on Romantic poetry and perception On a Donkey's Hurricane Deck Robert Pitcher Woodward,1902 Juvenile
