Swimming to Antarctica Lynne Cox, 2009-09-09 NATIONAL BESTSELLER In this extraordinary book the world s most extraordinary distance swimmer writes about her emotional and spiritual need to swim and about the almost mystical act of swimming itself Lynne Cox trained hard from age nine working with an Olympic coach swimming five to twelve miles each day in the Pacific At age eleven she swam even when hail made the water like cold tapioca pudding and was told she would one day swim the English Channel Four years later not yet out of high school she broke the men s and women s world records for the Channel swim In 1987 she swam the Bering Strait from America to the Soviet Union a feat that according to Gorbachev helped diminish tensions between Russia and the United States Lynne Cox s relationship with the water is almost mystical she describes swimming as flying and remembers swimming at night through flocks of flying fish the size of mockingbirds remembers being escorted by a pod of dolphins that came to her off New Zealand She has a photographic memory of her swims She tells us how she conceived of planned and trained for each and re creates for us the experience of swimming almost unswimmable bodies of water including her most recent astonishing one mile swim to Antarctica in thirty two degree water without a wet suit She tells us how through training and by taking advantage of her naturally plump physique she is able to create more heat in the water than she loses Lynne Cox has swum the Mediterranean the three mile Strait of Messina under the ancient bridges of Kunning Lake below the old summer palace of the emperor of China in Beijing Breaking records no longer interests her She writes about the ways in which these swims instead became vehicles for personal goals how she sees herself as the lone swimmer among the waves pitting her courage against the odds drawn to dangerous places and treacherous waters that since ancient times have challenged sailors in ships Swimming in the Sink Lynne Cox,2017-06-13 In this stunning memoir of life after loss the open water swimming legend and bestselling author tells of facing the one challenge that no amount of training could prepare her for A celebrated athlete who set swimming records around the world Lynne Cox achieved astonishing feats of strength and endurance She was the first to swim the frigid waters of the Bering Strait the Strait of Magellan and the coast of Antarctica and she was the fastest to swim the English Channel But it is a different kind of struggle that pushes her to the brink In a short period of time Lynne loses her father and then her mother and then Cody her beloved Labrador retriever Soon after Lynne herself is diagnosed with a life threatening heart condition that leaves her unable to swim and barely able to walk But against all odds and with the support of her friends and family Lynne begins the slow pull toward recovery reaching always for the open waters that give her the freedom and mastery that mean everything to her What follows is a beautifully poignant meditation on loss and an exhilarating celebration of life as to Lynne s surprise she begins to find within the unfamiliar space of vulnerability the greatest treasures like falling in love Luv U Mate Dr.Punit Sethi,2011 Love is sweet Love is kind it isn t just a piece of mind Love is something you need to give something that we share and believe Like a desert needs the water like a flower needs the rain my soul is thirsty for your Love and my heart screams out your name A girl and a boy meet through facebook and fall in love with each other repeatedly saying I LOVE YOU they become the most caring pair and share personal and private secrets with promise to be in love forever But something happens when SHE is taken to anonymity and HE is taken to lift skirts What happens and what options were left for him It is a true love story with some imaginations of the author that revolves around a social networking site called facebook At places you will find as if your own story is being narrated What is to be done in such love stories and during other happenings on social networking sites read on The Catalina Channel Swimmers Jana Beck,1996 William Wrigley Jr in order to promote tourism to Catalina Island sponsored the first swim from the mainland of California to Catalina Island 22 miles away in January 1927 This paper discusses the history of Catalina Channel swimming and lists all the swimmers who successfully have completed the swim between 1927 and 1995 The Forever Swim Antonio Argüelles,2020-04-21 Plunge into the water accompany Antonio Argüelles on his Oceans Seven adventure and along the way find out how to achieve your own dreams and goals On August 3 2017 Antonio Argüelles swam 35 kilometers from Northern Ireland to Scotland When he arrived on the Scottish shore after a swim of nearly 14 hours through hypothermic currents wearing only a speedo cap and goggles he became just the seventh person ever to conquer the Oceans Seven an aquatic achievement on par with the Seven Summits His feat made international news in part because at 58 years old he became the oldest athlete ever to complete the challenge Despite all warnings and his own self doubt he endured stormy seas 24 hour swims venomous jellyfish blooms and a host of other hazards to accomplish his dream But no goal seized is an isolated incident and Antonio s story is no exception The Forever Swim is not only a tale of success it is also the tale of how a hyperactive overweight boy would discover swimming chase an Olympic dream attend Stanford and wade into the tangled web of Mexican politics This is a story of risk fear confidence failure and loss It shows how the ability to adapt focus and manage the mind enabled Antonio to overcome each setback that sought to take him down in and out of the water The Forever Swim illuminates key strategies anyone can utilize to pursue their own goals and reminds us that no dream however bold is ever out of reach as long as we are willing to chase it down with relentless discipline and joy
