and preferably elegant She chooses the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City Knowing that her younger brother Jamie has money and thus can help her with a serious cash flow problem she invites him along Once settled into the museum Claudia and Jamie find themselves caught up in the mystery of an angel statue that the museum purchased at auction for a bargain price of 225 The statue is possibly an early work of the Renaissance master Michelangelo and therefore worth millions Is it Or isn't it Claudia is determined to find out Her quest leads her to Mrs Basil E Frankweiler the remarkable old woman who sold the statue and to some equally remarkable discoveries about herself

Interpreting Literature With Children Shelby A. Wolf, 2014-04-04 Clearly organized and beautifully written Interpreting Literature With Children is a remarkable book that stands on the edge of two textbook genres the survey of literature text and the literary criticism text Neither approach however says enough about how children respond to literature in everyday classroom situations That is the mission of this book It begins by providing a solid foundation in both approaches and then examines multiple ways of developing children's literary interpretation through talk through culture class and gender as well as through creative modes of expression including writing the visual arts and drama The result is a balanced resource for teachers who want to deepen their understanding of literature and literary engagement Because of its modest length and price and its ongoing focus on how to increase student engagement with literature either pre-service or practicing teachers can use this text in children's literature language arts or literacy and language courses
