

BRANDS THAT MAKE THE BEST CARS

We rank automakers from best to worst on their scores and survey results.

by JEFF S. KRAFT/CR

How we made the rankings: The Report based its automaker quality scores on four key factors: (1) our own reliability, owner satisfaction, and safety; (2) the national survey we sent out twice through more than 30,000 vehicles; (3) feedback ratings on products reported by manufacturers; and (4) industry trends from a CR's Auto News Group. Brand recommendations are based on our 10-point scale and are subject to change. The scores reflect the quality of products across many categories, not just one. We consider a score of 80 or above to be a good recommendation, while a score below 80 may reflect a poor recommendation.

and vehicle longevity of its automakers can show you if the right direction when making a new car purchase. These ratings are based on the average Overall Score, a combination of our most recent product reliability and owner satisfaction data, and reflect the all of the models from each automaker. The top five brands this year are the same ones as 2023, with BMW leading the pack with an 87 score, followed by Subaru, the leading manufacturer brand with 81. This year, for both companies, a clear consistent combination of high and low scores and very good predicted reliability. Porsche takes the third position with a score of 80. Both Porsche and Cadillac moved up 10 positions this year due to their improved reliability. Keep in mind that even high scoring brands can have some lower performing models, so be sure to check the ratings (see page 46) for the auto you're interested in. This is especially true for bigger brands like Ford and Toyota, which have some models that performed far better than others in our tests. (If the brands CR ranked this year were recommending every model rated from worst (BMW, Porsche, Honda, Kia, Mazda, and Audi) Single pick: You can buy and feel confident from those companies with confidence. (There are also brands that don't have a single model recommended by CR, including carefully when buying one of those.) To be included in the brand ranking, CR has to have tested at least two current models from a company. We've tested only one model from Lotus, Polestar, and Ram, so they aren't included this year.
