Joy Cometh in the Morning Dr. James Sylvester Reed Jr., 2017-08-02 As a child I found it quite difficult trying to sort out my own identity as a quasi middle child I say that because I had two sisters who were older and one sister just a year younger I was the only male in the household other than my father You would think that the situation would have worked in my favor since I was my father's only son Believe it or not my situation worked completely opposite to the norm My father had adopted a philosophy based on his own evolution as a child Ironically he had three sisters himself He had left home while in the fourth grade with a lumber company and didn't reunite with any of them until I was 5 years old at the time he was 61 For a large part of my developmental years I was under the impression that my father really didn't like me at all As a result I became my own best friend My sister's had my mother and my father more especially they had each other Just as I had begun to become accustomed to the idea of my own independence and to compensate for the lack thereof my father passed away It seems such a very long time ago I was only 16 years old and he was 73 but that was only the beginning of my blessed journey to this juncture in my life The following year my dear mother passed away at age 59 This time I felt that my life had also come to an abrupt end I never shall forget I went into my pitch black room crying out to the Lord Why me at this particular time in my life I was a mixed up teenager completely dissolute concerning my future My father unequivocally felt that the male gender could survive with little to no assistance because he had done so Thus his virtue ultimately became my manifesto No excuses Independent Schools Yearbook 2012-2013 none,2013-06-20 The highly respected book of reference of sought after Independent Schools in membership of the Independent Schools Council s Associations HMC GSA The Society of Heads IAPS ISA and COBIS
