History shows a consistent pattern of violence and terrorism in Afghanistan, including the 1979 Soviet invasion, the 1990s civil war, and the 2001 Taliban takeover. The Taliban's ideology is rooted in a strict interpretation of Sharia law, which they believe should govern all aspects of life. This ideology is a key driver of their violent actions, including the 9/11 attacks and the ongoing conflict in Afghanistan. The Taliban's actions are a direct result of their extremist beliefs and their desire to establish a theocratic state in Afghanistan.
