about religion and colonialism but in theoretical work in religious studies on the categories of religion and secular It contributes to ongoing studies of colonialism nation and identity in Southeast Asian studies by working to denaturalize nationalist histories It also engages conversations on millennialism and the construction of identity in Buddhist studies by tracing the fluid nature of s sana as a discourse The layers of Buddhist history that emerge challenge us to see multiple modes of identity in colonial modernity and offer insights into the instabilities of categories we too often take for granted
