

A man with a beard, wearing a blue suit and a white shirt, stands on the right side of the image. He is smiling and has his hands in his pockets. The background is a city skyline with various buildings under a cloudy sky. A dark blue, torn-edge speech bubble is positioned in the upper left, containing the text 'Pitching a Tent'. Below it, a white rectangular box contains the text 'EXODUS 25:1-9; 26:1,31-37'. Further down, the date 'March 9, 2025' is written. The words 'SUNDAY SCHOOL' are prominently displayed in large, bold letters, with 'SUNDAY' in blue and 'SCHOOL' in black. At the bottom, the phrase 'is now in session!' is written in black. In the bottom right corner, the name 'MINISTER ADAM' is written in yellow. A small purple logo with a white cross is visible in the top right corner.

Individual chapters tackle timely and controversial subjects such as gaming and simulation, security, lifelong learning, distance education, learning across educational settings and the research agenda. Designed to serve as a point of entry for learning technology novices, a comprehensive reference for scholars and researchers and a practical guide for education and training practitioners. Includes 29 original and comprehensively referenced essays written by leading experts in instructional and educational technology from around the world. Handbook of Quality Assurance for University Teaching Roger Ellis, Elaine Hogard, 2018-07-03. This practical and authoritative handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the issues and approaches to assuring quality in university teaching. Including contributions from major international figures, the book contains a wealth of ideas and practical advice to help universities commit to quality in teaching and offers insights into how the topics raised can be directly applied. The book initially identifies some of the key issues surrounding the topic such as the evidence based identification of teaching quality, the training of university lecturers and faculty, external and internal quality assurance, the tension between professional autonomy and governmental regulation and the involvement of students in developing quality. It then moves on to present ideas and initiatives to address these problems, tackling the subject through four sections: Assuring Quality, questioning what quality assurance means and how it might be practised; Identifying Quality, examining what knowledge exists at present and how it might be further researched; Developing Quality, investigating the development of staff through teacher training and appraisal; Case Studies of Quality Assurance, reviewing six case studies of quality assurance in a range of contrasting subjects including the professional subjects of Medicine, Nursing and Teacher Training, which are also addressed systemically in the first section. Full of practical advice, Handbook of Quality Assurance for University Teaching is an invaluable and unique resource for Faculty, Subject Leaders, University Administrators and Quality Assessors. Changing the World from the Inside Out David Jaffe, 2016-10-18. WINNER OF THE 2016 JEWISH BOOK

COUNCIL AWARD FOR CONTEMPORARY JEWISH LIFE AND PRACTICE An inspiring and accessible guide drawn from Jewish wisdom for building the inner qualities necessary to work effectively for social justice The world needs changing and you re just the person to do it It s a matter of cultivating the inner resources you already have If you are serious about working for social justice and change this book will help you bring your most compassionate wise and courageous self to the job Bringing positive social change to any system takes deep self awareness caring determination and long term commitment But polarization the slow pace of change and internal conflicts among activists and organizations often leads to burnout and discouragement among the very people needed to make a difference Changing the World from the Inside Out distills centuries of Jewish wisdom about cultivating and refining the inner life into an accessible program for building the qualities necessary to accomplish sustainable change Through explorations of deep motivation inner drive and traits like trust and anger this book engages the reader in a journey of self development and transformation demonstrating that sustainable activism is indeed a spiritual practice Jaffe offers accessible and meaningful guidance for this journey with exercises contemplations and discussion points that can be used individually or in a group

Quality in Higher Education as a Tool for Human Development Patience Mukwambo, 2019-04-11 Whilst many studies have explored how quality in higher education is conceptualised in the Global North less attention has been paid to quality in higher education in Africa and the Global South This book uses the human development and capabilities approach to demonstrate how quality in teaching and learning contributes to a range of benefits such as improved wellbeing economic outcomes political engagement and human capital formation amongst graduates The book interrogates the various dimensions of quality as well as factors that impact on the realisation of quality in universities and society at large Recognising that measures of quality are context and stakeholder specific the book uses the Zimbabwean context as a Global South case study It evaluates how quality is conceptualised and operationalised in Zimbabwean universities and how that impacts on teaching and learning policy and practice The book also demonstrates the need for economic resources for individuals and universities and emphasises the importance of a social and educational environment conducive to critical learning and post university opportunities This book will be of interest to researchers across Education African and Development Studies as well as to policymakers and practitioners with an interest in quality assurance and the promotion of teaching and learning in universities in the Global South

The Challenge of Teaching Gretchen Geng, Pamela Smith, Paul Black, 2016-10-11 This book presents thirty one accounts by final year pre service teachers providing guidance and insights for less advanced teacher education students and illustrating the use of life history and narrative stories as methods for pre service teachers to explore educational issues in classroom practice This life history approach identifies those political economic and social forces that have impinged on the individual at different points in their life and contributed to the process of changing their identities These stories are not written by established specialists in the areas they deal with but instead by novice teachers at the beginning of their paths towards mastering the intricacies of teaching and learning in school settings As such the book provides a mentoring framework and a means of helping pre service teachers share their valuable experiences and insights into aspects such as how to manage practicum requirements It helps establish a supportive relationship among pre service teachers providing them with access to valuable peer experiences In addition it helps pre service teachers make sense of their own practicum experiences and reflect on their own beliefs and professional judgement to develop their approaches and solve problems in their own classroom practice
