Burkholder, 2011-04-30 National Directory of Churches, Synagogues, and Other Houses of Worship J. Gordon Melton, 1993-09 A multid denominational guide to 350 000 churches in the US this is the fourth of a four volume set divided into regions west midwest south and northeast Within each volume the entries are arranged alphabetically by state Under each state the entries are alphabetized by city then by denomination No Strings Attached Rachel Nafziger Hartzler, 2013-04-30 No Strings Attached is the story of a Mennonite congregation in Indiana that existed for eighty six years The congregation began during the social and religious turmoil of the 1920s when some Mennonites in North America held to rigid doctrines and ethics implemented by central authority and others operated with a congregational polity and became more assimilated into secular culture The struggle between these two different understandings of faithfulness was most passionately played out in northern Indiana Placing the narrative of this congregation within the context of 500 years of Mennonite history illustrates the grace and the tension that has both beset and empowered a unique group of people who began as radical reformers Although no strings attached refers to the women s headwear during the 1920s which had no strings it could also be the story of the pastor eating lunch on the peak of the steep roof of the church building Reflecting on stories of these Mennonite people is an invitation to move into the future with courageous hope Believing and behaving differently has not prevented Middlebury Mennonites from treating each other respectfully living in a community of love joy and peace and offering God s healing and hope to each other and to the world

Hart,2020-09-01 Churches have begun awakening to social and political injustices often carried out in the name of Christianity But once awakened how will we respond Who Will Be a Witness offers a vision for communities of faith to organize for deliverance and justice in their neighborhoods states and nation as an essential part of living out the call of Jesus Author Drew G I Hart provides incisive insights into Scripture and history along with illuminating personal stories to help us identify how the witness of the church has become mangled by Christendom white supremacy and religious nationalism Hart provides a wide range of options for congregations seeking to give witness to Jesus ethic of love for and solidarity with the vulnerable At a time when many feel disillusioned and distressed Hart calls the church to action offering a way forward that is deeply rooted in the life and witness of Jesus Dr Hart s testimony is powerful personal and profound serving as a compass that points the church to the future and offers us a path toward meaningful social change and a more faithful witness to the way of Jesus Soul Tending Anita Amstutz,2018-05-08 We live in hungry times There is economic uncertainty fear violence division and social chaos What is needed for times such as these is a heart full of courage and wisdom grounded in compassion and resilience For this we can turn to one of the practices that for so many centuries nourished people of faith through incredibly difficult life circumstances and service Traditionally it was a communal gathering time of rest ritual and prayer It is Sabbath keeping In Soul Tending Anita Amstutz offers field notes and a road map from her own Sabbath keeping practice for the 21st century a practice rooted in tradition but whose tenets can be applied to practices fit for our present hectic and troubling world Anita has written the book in such a way that it can easily be adapted as a study guide Each chapter ends with a list of questions for reflection that are perfect for use by full congregations independent readers and every kind of group in between This provides an accessible and engaging method to a shared understanding of Sabbath keeping in the modern day Gospel Tidings ,1998 Being Both Susan Katz Miller,2013-10-22 A book on the growing number of interfaith families raising children in two religions Susan Katz Miller grew up with a Jewish father and Christian mother and was raised Jewish Now in an interfaith marriage herself she is one of the growing number of Americans who are boldly electing to raise children with both faiths rather than in one religion or the other or without religion In Being Both Miller draws on original surveys and interviews with parents students teachers and clergy as well as on her own journey to chronicle this controversial grassroots movement Almost a third of all married Americans have a spouse from another religion and there are now more children in Christian Jewish interfaith families than in families with two Jewish parents Across the country many of these families are challenging the traditional idea that they must choose one religion In some cities more interfaith couples are raising children with both than Jewish only What does this mean for these families for these children and for religious institutions Miller argues that there are distinct benefits for families who reject the false choice of either or and instead embrace the synergy of being both Reporting on hundreds of parents and children who celebrate two religions she documents why couples make this choice and how children appreciate dual faith education But often families who choose both have trouble finding supportive clergy and community To that end Miller includes advice and resources for interfaith families planning baby welcoming and coming of age ceremonies and seeking to find or form interfaith education programs She also addresses the difficulties that interfaith families can encounter wrestling with spiritual questions Will our children believe in God and challenges How do we talk about Jesus And finally looking beyond Judaism and Christianity Being Both provides the first glimpse of the next interfaith wave intermarried Muslim Hindu and Buddhist couples raising children in two religions Being Both is at once a rousing declaration of the benefits of celebrating two religions and a blueprint for interfaith families who are seeking guidance and community support
