between 1910 and 1922 running amok in frantic chases and sending up current events and fashions With a rich family heritage in pantomime and music hall Evans introduced a satirical approach to filmmaking frequently lampooning the recently introduced feature films Pimple s burlesques deflated the seriousness of such productions providing subversive support for audiences adjusting to the the new form But continual mockery of themes acting styles and film techniques did not endear him to all Changing public tastes and industry disapproval eventually resulted in an end to Evans screen appearances and a return to the stage As Evans has been almost entirely sidelined by film historians this is the first book length biography of him It places Evans not only in a film context but within the wider entertainment and social perspectives of his time Amongst topics discussed are the beginnings of the star system war propaganda the growth of film fandom and concerns about the influence of cinema on children
