Caribbean Women Writers and Globalization Professor Helen C Scott, 2013-04-28 Caribbean Women Writers and Globalization offers a fresh reading of contemporary literature by Caribbean women in the context of global and local economic forces providing a valuable corrective to much Caribbean feminist literary criticism Departing from the trend towards thematic diasporic studies Helen Scott considers each text in light of its national historical and cultural origins while also acknowledging regional and international patterns Though the work of Caribbean women writers is apparently less political than the male dominated literature of national liberation Scott argues that these women nonetheless express the sociopolitical realities of the postindependent Caribbean providing insight into the dynamics of imperialism that survive the demise of formal colonialism In addition she identifies the specific aesthetic qualities that reach beyond the confines of geography and history in the work of such writers as Oonya Kempadoo Jamaica Kincaid Edwidge Danticat Pauline Melville and Janice Shinebourne Throughout Scott's persuasive and accessible study sustains the dialectical principle that art is inseparable from social forces and yet always strains against the limits they impose Her book will be an indispensable resource for literature and women's studies scholars as well as for those interested in postcolonial cultural and globalization studies

Taking Flight Jennifer Donahue,2020-07-23 Caribbean women have long utilized the medium of fiction to break the pervasive silence surrounding abuse and exploitation Contemporary works by such authors as Tiphonie Yanique and Nicole Dennis Benn illustrate the deep rooted consequences of trauma based on gender sexuality and race and trace the steps that women take to find safer ground from oppression Taking Flight examines the immigrant experience in contemporary Caribbean women's writing and considers the effects of restrictive social mores In the texts examined in Taking Flight culturally sanctioned violence impacts the ability of female characters to be at home in their bodies or in the spaces they inhabit The works draw attention to the historic racialization and sexualization of black women's bodies and continue the legacy of narrating black women's long standing contestation of systems of oppression Arguing that there is a clear link between trauma shame and migration with trauma serving as a precursor to the protagonists emigration Jennifer Donahue focuses on how female bodies are policed how moral racial and sexual codes are linked and how the enforcement of social norms can function as a form of trauma Donahue considers the relationship between trauma shame and sexual politics and investigates how shame works as a social regulator that frequently leads to withdrawal or avoidant behaviors in those who violate socially sanctioned mores Most importantly Taking Flight positions flight as a powerful counter to disempowerment and considers how flight whether through dissociation or migration functions as a form of resistance Bees in Early Modern Transatlantic Literature Nicole A. Jacobs,2020-11-29 This book examines apian imagery bees drones honey and the hive in the seventeenth and eighteenth century literary and oral traditions In England and the New World colonies during a critical period of expansion the metaphor of this communal society faced unprecedented challenges even as it came to emblemize the process of colonization itself The beehive connected the labor of those marginalized by race class gender or species to larger considerations of sovereignty This study examines the works of William Shakespeare Francis Daniel Pastorius Hopi Wyandotte and Pocasset cultures John Milton Hester Pulter and Bernard Mandeville Its contribution lies in its exploration of the simultaneously recuperative and destructive narratives that place the bee at the nexus of the human the animal and the environment The book argues that bees play a central representational and physical role in shaping conflicts over hierarchies of the early transatlantic world
