

Teaching Assistant

During a teaching assistant apprenticeship, you will assist the class teacher in improving students' learning experience. Teaching assistants support children of various age groups in both primary and secondary schools, focusing on individual educational requirements and emotional well-being.

Responsibilities

During your apprenticeship, you may assist by:

- aiding teachers in preparing lesson materials,
- organising and cleaning classrooms for lessons,
- assisting students to ensure their comprehension,
- observing, documenting, and reporting students' progress,
- caring for upset or unwell children,
- leading classes with support from the teacher.
