The Weird A Compendium Of Strange And Dark Stories:

The Weird Ann VanderMeer, Jeff VanderMeer, 2012-05-08 An oversized anthology of dark and bizarre tales written throughout the past century includes entries by international best sellers and award winners including Neil Gaiman Stephen King and Franz Kafka WEIRD ANN. VANDERMEER VANDERMEER (JEFF.), 2017 A History of the Literature of the U.S. South: Volume 1 Harilaos Stecopoulos, 2021-05-20 A History of the Literature of the U S South provides scholars with a dynamic and heterogeneous examination of southern writing from John Smith to Natasha Trethewey Eschewing a master narrative limited to predictable authors and titles the anthology adopts a variegated approach that emphasizes the cultural and political tensions crucial to the making of this regional literature Certain chapters focus on major white writers e g Thomas Jefferson William Faulkner the Agrarians Cormac McCarthy but a substantial portion of the work foregrounds the achievements of African American writers like Frederick Douglass Zora Neale Hurston and Sarah Wright to address the multiracial and transnational dimensions of this literary formation Theoretically informed and historically aware the volume s contributors collectively demonstrate how southern literature constitutes an aesthetic cultural and political field that richly repays examination from a variety of critical perspectives The Time Traveler's Almanac Ann VanderMeer, Jeff VanderMeer, 2014-03-18 The Time Traveler s Almanac is the largest and most definitive collection of time travel stories ever assembled Gathered into one volume by intrepid chrononauts and world renowned anthologists Ann and Jeff VanderMeer this book compiles more than a century s worth of literary travels into the past and the future that will serve to reacquaint readers with beloved classics of the time travel genre and introduce them to thrilling contemporary innovations This marvelous volume includes nearly seventy journeys through time from authors such as Douglas Adams Isaac Asimov Ray Bradbury William Gibson Ursula K Le Guin George R R Martin Michael Moorcock H G Wells and Connie Willis as well as helpful non fiction articles original to this volume such as Charles Yu s Top Ten Tips For Time Travelers In fact this book is like a time machine of its very own covering millions of years of Earth s history from the age of the dinosaurs through to strange and fascinating futures spanning the ages from the beginning of time to its very end The Time Traveler s Almanac is the ultimate anthology for the time traveler in your life The Cambridge Companion to Literature and the Anthropocene John Parham, 2021-06-17 From catastrophe to utopia the most comprehensive survey yet of how literature can speak to the Anthropocene Aspects of Science Fiction Studies: A Collection of Miscellaneous Articles on the Intersection of Posthumanism, Transhumanism, Anthropocene, and Post-Anthropocentrism in Some Select, Contemporary Novels Dr. Indrajit Patra, 2021-06-14 The book intends to present a critique of some select 21st Century hard science fiction novels in order to explicate the various ways in which the elements of posthumanism transhumanism techno singularity intersect and interact with other such ideas as monstrosity animality machinic post anthropocentrism and Anthropocene The study divides its analysis into seven different chapters and attempts to present an elaborate study on various aspects of

posthumanism transhumanism and singularity The book despite being a collection of miscellaneous essays actually intends to show how a technologically mediated transhuman posthuman culture will normally be defined by a total dissolution of binaries such as digital and real animal and human and machine and man The book also wants to describe through its analysis of some select hard science fiction novels that man machine merger and creation of hyper immersive virtual reality can function as two of the most effective agents for catalyzing a radically transformative posthuman post scarcity and techno utopian culture The analysis presented in the book is not totally oriented to the discussion of far future implications of accelerated technological progress which is imperative for arriving at a transhuman or posthuman stage rather the book is equally concerned with the implications of rapid technological advancements in our present times and so the study also posits that before ascending to the heights of posthuman status mankind has to cope with the good and bad aspects of the Anthropocene which is the next stage in our collective evolution and journey towards the trans posthuman state The first chapter of this study attempts to bring to focus the phenomenon of a technologically mediated dissolution of the binaries between man animal human nonhuman and subject object which will be extremely important in the analysis of the emergence of a posthuman culture later in the study Technological advancements can be seen here as either conducive towards creating a harmonious relationship between man and animal or through systematic denigration of the agency of the animal it can pave the way for the emergence of monstrosity In Chapter 2 of the book we shall delve deep into the analysis of horror as illustrated in the novels and video games of the Dead Space series Here through a multi theoretical perspective we shall find how horrors and monstrosity can manifest themselves in both written as well as digital virtual media In Chapter 3 we shall delve into the discussion of the power of simulation in the construction of an immersive and hyperreal post transhuman culture where the distinction between real and virtual and material and immaterial vanishes altogether In Chapter 4 we dedicate the entire chapter to the study of Kim Stanley Robinson s systems novel The Ministry for the Future 2020 to attempt a critique of the elements of good and bad Anthropocene Though not directly and intimately related to the study of posthumanism and transhumanism yet a discussion of the elements of the Anthropocene will be of immense contemporary relevance to us The next Chapter i e Chapter 5 will attempt to present an explication of the role of machines in the realization of posthuman culture Chapter 6 is primarily concerned with an analysis of Stephen Baxter s novels to see how posthuman culture is constructed around the agency of the autopoietic machines The final chapter attempts to present a brief analysis of three of Iain M Banks Culture novels namely Matter Surface Detail and Hydrogen Sonata to elaborate on the employment of posthuman transhuman tropes in these works

Horror Literature from Gothic to Post-Modern

Michele Brittany, Nicholas Diak, 2020-02-14 From shambling zombies to Gothic ghosts horror has entertained thrill seeking readers for centuries A versatile literary genre it offers commentary on societal issues fresh insight into the everyday and moral tales disguised in haunting tropes and grotesque acts with many stories worthy of critical appraisal This collection of new essays takes in a range of topics focusing on historic works such as Ann Radcliffe's Gaston de Blondville 1826 and modern novels including Max Brooks' World War Z. Other contributions examine weird fiction, Stephen King, Richard Laymon, Indigenous Australian monster mythology and horror in picture books for young children. Monster, She Wrote Lisa Kröger, Melanie R. Anderson, 2019-09-17 Meet the women writers who defied convention to craft some of literature's strangest tales from Frankenstein to The Haunting of Hill House and beyond. Frankenstein was just the beginning; horror stories and other weird fiction wouldn't exist without the women who created it. From Gothic ghost stories to psychological horror to science fiction, women have been primary architects of speculative literature of all sorts. And their own life stories are as intriguing as their fiction. Everyone knows about Mary Shelley, creator of Frankenstein, who was rumored to keep her late husband's heart in her desk drawer. But have you heard of Margaret Mad Madge Cavendish, who wrote a science fiction epic 150 years earlier and liked to wear topless gowns to the theater? If you know the astounding work of Shirley Jackson, whose novel The Haunting of Hill House was reinvented as a Netflix series, then try the psychological hauntings of Violet Paget, who was openly involved in long-term romantic relationships with women in the Victorian era. You'll meet celebrated icons Ann Radcliffe, V. C. Andrews, forgotten wordsmiths Eli Colter, Ruby Jean Jensen, and today's vanguard Helen Oyeyemi. Curated reading lists point you to their most spine-chilling tales. Part biography, part reader's guide, the engaging write-ups and detailed reading lists will introduce you to more than a hundred authors and over two hundred of their mysterious and spooky novels, novellas, and stories.

Understanding Flusser, Understanding Modernism Aaron Jaffe, Laci Mattison, Michael F. Miller, Rodrigo Martini, Paul Ardoin, S. E. Gontarski, 2023-07-27 The Czech-Brazilian philosopher Vilém Flusser (1920–1991) has been recognized as a decisive past master in the emergence of contemporary media theory and media archaeology. His work engages and also rethinks several mythologies of modernity, devising new methodologies, experimental literary practices, and expanded hermeneutics that trouble traditional practices of literary, literate knowledge, shared experience, reception, and communication. Working within an expanded concept of modernism, Flusser presciently noted the power inherent in algorithmic information apparatuses to reshape our fundamental conceptions of culture and history. In an increasingly technological world, Flusser's form of experimental theory-fiction pits philosophy against cybernetics as it forces the category of the human to confront the inhuman world of animals and machines. The contributors to Understanding Flusser engage with the multiplicity of Flusser's thought as they provide a general analysis of his work, engage in comparative readings with other philosophers, and offer expanded conceptualizations of modernism. The final section of the volume includes an extended glossary clarifying the playful terminology used by Flusser, which will be a valuable resource for experts and students alike. Borders and Border Crossings in the Contemporary British Short Story Barbara Korte, Laura Ma Lojo-Rodríguez, 2020-01-02 This book represents a contribution to both border studies and short story studies. In today's world, there is ample evidence of the return of borders worldwide as material reality, as a concept, and as a way of thinking This collection of critical essays focuses on the ways in which the contemporary British short story mirrors questions and engages with border issues in national and individual life At the same time the concept of the border as well as neighbouring notions of liminality and intersectionality is used to illuminate the short story's unique aesthetic potential The first section Geopolitics and Grievable Lives includes chapters that address the various ways in which contemporary stories engage with our newly bordered world and borders within contemporary Britain The second section examines how British short stories engage with Ethnicity and Liminal Identities while the third Animal Encounters and Metamorphic Bodies focuses on stories concerned with epistemological borders and borderlands of existence and identity Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the varied and complex ways in which British short stories in the twenty first century engage with the concept of the border

The Citadel of Fear Francis Stevens, 2024-10-22 Two adventurers prospecting for gold in the jungles of Mexico stumble across a lost Aztec city and cause an ancient evil to be unleashed An early science fiction masterpiece written by Gertrude Barrows Bennett writing as Francis Stevens Discovering a lost city in the Mexican jungle two adventurers embark on a terrifying journey Disturbing ancient gods and nightmare creatures they find a hidden civilization of Aztecs and bring dark magic into the modern world With a potent cocktail of romance revenge and swampish evil this book is one of the earliest examples of fantasy and remains an enthralling read Gertrude Barrows Bennett writing as Francis Stevens is often regarded as the founder of dark fantasy and was admired by H P Lovecraft amongst many with some ranking her alongside Mary Shelley in impact and imaginative power

Foundations of Feminist Fiction The early 1900s saw a quiet revolution in literature dominated by male adventure heroes Both men and women moved beyond the norms of the male gaze to write from a different gender perspective sometimes with female protagonists but also expressing the universal freedom to write on any subject whatsoever

Diseases of the Head Matt Rosen, 2020 Diseases of the Head is an anthology of essays from contemporary philosophers artists and writers working at the crossroads of speculative philosophy and speculative horror At once a compendium of multivocal endeavors a breviary of supposedly illicit ponderings and a travelogue of philosophical exploration this collection centers itself on the place at which philosophy and horror meet Employing rigorous analysis incisive experimentation and novel invention this anthology asks about the use that speculation can make of horror and horror of speculation about whether philosophy is fictional or fiction philosophical and about the relationship between horror the exigencies of our world and time and the future developments that may await us in philosophy itself From philosophers working on horrific themes to horror writers influenced by heresies in the wake of post Kantianism to artists engaged in projects that address monstrosity and alienation Diseases of the Head aims at nothing less than a speculative coup d'état Refusing both total negation and absolute affirmation refusing to deny everything or account for everything refusing the posture of critique and the posture of all encompassing unification this collection of essays aims at exposition and construction analysis and creation it desires to fight for some thing but not everything and not nothing And it desires most of all to speak from the position of its own insufficiency its own partiality its own under determinacy which is always indicative of the practice of thinking of speculation Considering themes of anonymity otherness and alterity the gothic extinction and the world without us the end times the apocalypse the ancient and the world before us and the uncanny or unheimlich among other motifs this anthology seeks to articulate the cutting edge which can be found at the intersection of speculative philosophy and speculative horror Spaces and Fictions of the Weird and the Fantastic Julius Greve, Florian Zappe, 2019-11-18 This collection of essays discusses genre fiction and film within the discursive framework of the environmental humanities and analyses the convergent themes of spatiality climate change and related anxieties concerning the future of human affairs as crucial for any understanding of current forms of weird and fantastic literature and culture Given their focus on the culturally marginal unknown and other these genres figure as diagnostic modes of storytelling outlining the latent anxieties and social dynamics that define a culture's structure of feeling at a given historical moment The contributions in this volume map the long and continuous tradition of weird and fantastic fiction as a seismograph for eco geographical turmoil from the nineteenth to the twenty first century offering innovative and insightful ecocritical readings of H P Lovecraft Harriet Prescott Spofford China Miéville N K Jemisin Thomas Ligotti and Jeff VanderMeer among others The Cross, the Plow and the Skyline Ernest J. Yanarella, 2022-03-01 The apocalyptic pastoral and urban traditions have fundamentally shaped Western history and influenced American religion culture and politics This book argues that these traditions have not only been decisive in giving form and substance to classic and modern American literature but have been appropriated by contemporary science fiction As a loosely connected set of cultural narratives the Cross the Plow and the Skyline have through the medium of science fiction and fantasy provided a bold vista on the future grounded in an emergent ecological imagination In the expanded second edition of the original 2001 publication the author argues that a significant shift has taken place in contemporary Anglo American science fiction and fantasy SF F from twentieth century SF F critically analyzed in the first edition's critical inquiry Avantgarde works in twenty first century speculative fiction extensively examined in representative works in interludes separating the slightly revised original chapters have become darker in their visions of the possible future more focused on slowness over breakneck speed more amenable to gender racial and global diversity in authorship plot and subgenre creation less attached to anchor concepts like the city wilderness and the domesticated landscape in plot development more prone to dystopian and critical dystopian tropes simultaneously more open toward but critical of Young Adult fiction and more supportive of the breakdown of borders and antagonisms between science fiction and fantasy and SF F and literary fiction Ensconced in the cultural social and political zeitgeist of the New Millennium's first two decades these features of twenty first century science fiction and fantasy may yet settle into and inform emergent and pluralistic varieties of ecological politics spreading across the globe and confronting the Earth's social and environmental crises of our times and coming decades Plants in Science Fiction

Katherine E. Bishop, David Higgins, Jerry Määttä, 2020-05-01 This is the first volume of its kind Plants in Science Fiction shows how considerations of plant life in SF can transform our understanding of institutions and boundaries erecting and dismantling new visions of utopian and dystopian futures Its original essays argue that plant life in SF is transforming our attitudes toward morality politics economics and cultural life Atmosfears: The Uncanny Climate of Contemporary Ecofiction

Natalie Dederichs, 2023-05-09 We live in a critical moment in history often called the Anthropocene that is defined by unprecedented scales of uncertainty Natalie Dederichs draws on insights from the new materialisms about the entangled nature of planetary existence and combines them with approaches to aesthetics from fields as diverse as reader response criticism phenomenology Gothic and media studies She introduces a poetics of atmospheric relationality as a necessary component of any ecological engagement with fiction that fully embraces literary encounters with the inaccessible and elusive as expressed in uncanny atmospheric reading experiences The Big Book of Classic Fantasy Ann
