The Wolf Hunters Illustrated:

The Wolf Hunters Illustrated James Oliver Curwood, 2020-11-25 Cold winter lay deep in the Canadian wilderness Over it the moon was rising like a red pulsating ball lighting up the vast white silence of the night in a shimmering glow Not a sound broke the stillness of the desolation It was too late for the life of day too early for the nocturnal roamings and voices of the creatures of the night Like the basin of a great amphitheater the frozen lake lay revealed in the light of the moon and a billion stars Beyond it rose the spruce forest black and forbidding Along its nearer edges stood hushed walls of tamarack bowed in the smothering clutch of snow and ice shut in by impenetrable gloom A huge white owl flitted out of this rim of blackness then back again and its first quavering hoot came softly as though the mystic hour of silence had not yet passed for the night folk The snow of the day had ceased hardly a breath of air stirred the ice coated twigs of the trees Yet it was bitter cold so cold that a man remaining motionless would have frozen to death within an hour The Wolf Hunters & The Sequel -
