The Thing Around Your Neck:

The Thing Around Your Neck Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, 2010-06-01 These twelve dazzling stories from the award winning author of Half of a Yellow Sun Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie are her most intimate works to date In these stories Adichie turns her penetrating eye to the ties that bind men and women parents and children Nigeria and the United States In A Private Experience a medical student hides from a violent riot with a poor Muslim woman and the young mother at the centre of Imitation finds her comfortable life in Philadelphia threatened when she learns that her husband has moved his mistress into their Lagos home Searing and profound suffused with beauty sorrow and longing this collection is a resounding confirmation of Adichie's prodigious literary powers Cambridge Checkpoints VCE Text Guides: The Thing around your Neck by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Glen Kellam, 2014-06-06 Cambridge Checkpoints VCE Text Guides are an invaluable digital resource for all students of senior English This guide for Area of Study 1 will help you develop the confidence you need to write essays throughout the year and to build your skills in reading and responding in readiness for the end of year exam Cambridge Checkpoints VCE Text Guides for Area of Study 1 offer you Detailed character analysis Discussion of themes ideas and values A focus on the language features and conventions of your text Revision questions Sample topics Practice essays and essay writing tips Comprehensive reference lists "A Study Guide for Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's "A Private Experience"" Gale, Cengage, 2018-12-13 A Study Guide for Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's A Private Experience excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Mapping American Spaces in Literature and Beyond Adina Ciugureanu, Eduard Vlad, 2025-11-17 This edited volume explores areas of research in critical spatial thinking that impact understanding of space place and time in a world undergoing rapid change focusing on American literature and culture Based on theories that have evolved following the spatial turn Foucault Harvey Soja Lefebvre Jameson and the spatial and geocritical approaches recently developed by Bertrand Westphal and Robert Tally Jr this volume gathers contributions by young scholars and academics looking at real and imaginary spaces in literature art architecture and digital humanities By considering space and its real and imaginary representations in cartography and the arts as well as looking at real and imaginary mapping and remapping in literature and culture the volume offers new insights into space and place Writing in Times of Displacement Mbuh Tenu Mbuh, Meera Chakravorty, John Clammer, 2022-12-23 This book presents diverse composite non exclusive and non hierarchical perspectives on displacement of people as represented in literature It examines the experiences of migration as a result of wars natural disasters religious strife loss of livelihoods and shifts in local and global economies and the vulnerabilities they expose Bringing together scholarly insights into literature about displacement and migration from Africa Europe Asia and the Middle East the book interrogates the development frames of Western modernity and situates displacement within the discourse of disenfranchisement of citizens by nation states It explores the experiences memories and expressions of displacement in literature and how literary works critique ethical and moral responsibilities of states and communities that often do not account for the loss which displacement causes to the health education career or relationships of displaced people The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature philosophy migration and diaspora studies development studies African studies and Asian studies The Critical Imagination in African Literature Maik Nwosu, Obiwu, 2015-06-09 In African studies the Echeruoan ideal is understood as an intervention or intellectual engagement characterized by a broadness of vision as well as a depth of analysis The essays gathered in this volume celebrate that ideal and honor Echeruo's contribution to the African intellectual tradition Editors Nwosu and Obiwu explore the driving forces in the literature of Africa and the African diaspora Contributors examine such themes as migration and exile trauma and repression violence and rebellion and gender and human rights Showcasing a rich diversity of cultural and academic backgrounds this volume inaugurates a new paradigm for further examination of African literature as world literature and for analysis of African literature through the lens of psychoanalytic semiotics While varied in modes of inquiry the essays are unified in their ambition to explore new theoretical directions reinvigorating the conversation around how African literature is read and studied African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda, 2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui's diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public Quicklet on

ABOUT THE BOOK At first glance it would not seem that I someone who was born in the United States and has never been to Africa would have anything in common with a woman from Nigeria My exposure to Nigeria is so limited that I am largely unable to distinguish it from the rest of the continent as if there is a singular African culture and experience Like many Americans what I know of Africa largely comes from the news media This means that when I think of Africa I usually think of wars refugee camps abject poverty diseases and corruption With the exception of having beautiful wildlife and landscape Africa to me simply represented a place of general misery This is the result of being exposed to only a single story As Nigerian writer Chimamanda Adichie points out in her TED talk The danger of a single story there is never a single story Her own life is a testament to the fact that Africa is not just what we see on the news MEET THE AUTHOR Based in the San Francisco Bay Area Karen Lac has been writing since 1999 Her articles have appeared in print in The Occidental Weekly Her writing reflects her broad interests She writes travel entertainment political commentary health nutrition food education career and legal articles for numerous websites She holds a Bachelor of Arts in English Literature and a Bachelor of Arts in politics both from Occidental College EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Nigerian writer Chimamanda Adichie uses her personal life and experiences to illustrate the danger of reducing other people and cultures to a single story rather than recognizing that we all have overlapping multiple stories She begins her talk by discussing her childhood in Nigeria moves on to her experience as an African woman in the U S and then discusses the Nigerian experience today As a child growing up in a university campus in eastern Nigeria Adichie loved reading and writing When she began writing at the age of seven she wrote the kind of stories that she had read This meant that she wrote stories about blue eyed white children who played in the snow and ate apples Since the only books she read were British and American books populated with people different from her who experienced things she didn t know anything about Adichie started believing that she had no place in books This changed when she discovered African writers such as Chinua Achebe and Camara Laye She realized that books could also tell the stories of people like her Buy a copy to keep reading Conversations with Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Daria

Tunca,2020-08-25 Nigerian author Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie b 1977 is undoubtedly one of the most widely acclaimed African writers of the twenty first century Best known for her insightful fiction viral TED talks and essays on feminism she is also an outspoken intellectual As she puts it in an interview with Lia Grainger in her characteristically straightforward style I have things to say and I'll say them Conversations with Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie is the first collection of interviews with the writer Covering fifteen years of conversations the interviews start with the publication of Adichie's first novel Purple Hibiscus 2003 and end in late 2018 by which time Adichie had become one of the most prominent figures on the international literary scene As both scholars and passionate readers of the author's work are bound to find out the opinions shared by Adichie in interviews over the years coalesce into a fascinating portrait that presents both abiding features and gradual transformations Reflecting the political and emotional scope of Adichie's work the conversations contained in this volume cover a wide range of topics including colonialism race immigration and feminism Collectively these interviews testify both to the author's ardent wish to strive for a more just and equal world and to her deep interest in exploring our common humanity As Adichie says in her 2009 interview with Joshua Jelly Schapiro When people call me a novelist I say well yes I really think of myself as a storyteller This book invites Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie to tell her own literary story

Narrating Identity Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2023-08-08 This book examines the complexities of women's lives in Africa and the transnational spaces of Europe and North America through the literary works of key African women writers Using a postcolonial analytical framework the book highlights the commonalities of African women's identities and experiences across national ethnic linguistic and religious boundaries in Africa and in western settings It collates the multi regional narratives of key African women writers who convey how women's lives are shaped by social economic and political factors at home and abroad It also illustrates the intersection of ethnicity class and gender that flows through all the texts examined Unlike existing works that explore African women's fiction this book uncovers the transformation from postcolonial themes of nationhood to global modalities of post independence writing through the lens of gender The book engages with feminist expression through broad themes including religion war and ethnic conflict women s status in society tradition and modernity and local and global tensions A unique approach to literary criticism of Anglophone African women s writing this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of African Literature African Studies Women s Literature Postcolonial Literature Cultural and Ethnic Studies and Migration and Diaspora Studies Edinburgh Companion to the Short Story in English Paul Delaney,2018-02-01 Provides a clear introduction to the key terms and frameworks in cognitive poetics and stylistics Reading a Different Story (Turning South: Christian Scholars in an Age of World
