The Unruly PhD R. Peabody, 2016-02-09 This collection features former graduate students who speak frankly about the challenges and decisions they faced along the way to their doctorates Peabody leaves no doubt that there are as many right ways to get through a PhD and as many right career tracks on the other side as there are students willing to forge their own paths

The Palgrave Handbook of Imposter Syndrome in Higher Education Michelle Addison, Maddie Breeze, Yvette Taylor, 2022-04-11 This handbook explores feeling like an imposter in higher education and what this can tell us about contemporary educational inequalities Asking why imposter syndrome matters now we investigate experiences of imposter syndrome across social locations institutional positions and intersecting inequalities Our collection queries advice to fit in with the university and authors reflect on not belonging in with and against educational institutions The collection advances understandings of imposter syndrome as socially situated in relation to entrenched inequalities and their recirculation in higher education Chapters combine creative methods and linger on the figure of the imposter wary of both individualising and celebrating imposters as lucky misfits fraudsters or failures and critically interrogating the supposed universality of imposter syndrome

Feeling Academic in the Neoliberal University Yvette Taylor, Kinneret Lahad, 2018-02-09 This book offers a contemporary account of what it means to inhabit academia as a privilege risk entitlement or a failure Drawing on international perspectives from a range of academic disciplines it asks whether feminist spaces can offer freedom or flight from the corporatized and commercialized neoliberal university How are feminist voices felt heard received silenced and masked What is it to be a feminist academic in the neoliberal university How are expectations entitlements and burdens felt in inhabiting feminist positions and what of bad feeling or unhappiness amongst feminists The volume consider these issues from across the career course including from early career and senior established scholars as these diverse categories are themselves entangled in academic structures sentiments and subjectivities they are solidified in for example entry and promotion schemes as well as funding calls and they ask us to identify in particular stages of being or becoming academic while arguably denying the possibility of ever arriving It will be essential reading for students and researchers in the areas of Education Sociology and Gender Studies

Visualizing Empire Rebecca Peabody, Steven Nelson, Dominic Thomas, 2021-01-19 An exploration of how an official French visual culture normalized France's colonial project and exposed citizens and subjects to racialized ideas of life in the empire By the end of World War I having fortified its colonial holdings in the Caribbean Latin America Africa the Indian Ocean and Asia France had expanded its dominion to the four corners of the earth This volume examines how an official French visual culture normalized the country's colonial project and exposed citizens and subjects alike to racialized ideas of life in the empire Essays analyze aspects of colonialism through investigations into the art popular literature material culture film and exhibitions that represented celebrated or were created for France's colonies across the seas These studies draw from the rich documents and media photographs albums postcards maps posters advertisements and children's games related to the nineteenth and twentieth century French empire that are held in the Getty Research Institute's Association Connaissance de l'histoire de l'Afrique contemporaine ACHAC collections ACHAC is a consortium of scholars and researchers devoted to exploring and promoting discussions of race iconography and the colonial and postcolonial periods of Africa and Europe

Time and Space in the Neoliberal University Maddie Breeze, Yvette Taylor, Cristina Costa, 2019-06-13 This book offers new interdisciplinary analyses of borders and blockages in higher education and how they can be inhabited and reworked Amidst stratified inequalities of race gender class and sexuality across time and space contributors explore what alternative academic futures can be claimed While higher education institutions are increasingly concerned with internationalization diversity and widening access and participation the sector remains complicit in reproducing entrenched inequalities of access and outcomes among both students and staff boundaries of who does and does not belong are continually drawn enacted contested and redrawn In the contemporary neoliberal entrepreneurial and post colonial educational context contributors critically examine educational futures as these become more uncertain This wide ranging collection serves as a call to action for those concerned with the future of higher education and how alternative futures can be reimagined

The Reception of Northrop Frye, 2021-08-31 The widespread opinion is that Northrop Frye's influence reached its zenith in the 1960s and 1970s after which point he became obsolete his work buried in obscurity This almost universal opinion is summed up in Terry Eagleton's 1983 rhetorical question Who now reads Frye In The Reception of Northrop Frye Robert D Denham catalogues what has been written about Frye books articles translations dissertations and theses and reviews in order to demonstrate that the attention Frye's work has received from the beginning has progressed at a geomantic rate Denham also explores what we can discover once we have a fairly complete record of Frye's reception in front of us such as Hayden White's theory of emplotments applied to historical writing and Byron Almon's theory of musical narrative The sheer quantity of what has been written about Frye reveals that the only valid response to Eagleton's rhetorical question is a very large and growing number the growth being not incremental but exponential

Rupturing the Dialectic Harry Cleaver, 2017-04-17 A central figure for anti authoritarian Marxists and radicals who see the working class as an autonomous force capable of acting independently and not simply reacting to the depredations of capitalism Harry Cleaver brings this vision up to date interpreting capitalism's latest crises and demonstrating how ordinary people can and do rupture the smooth functioning of the system that exploits them of information science fields The contributors are leaders in the library publishing and vendor communities Camp Fabio Cleto,1999 The complete guide to c an anthology of the best writing on its history and current theory in cultural studies and lesbian and gay studies Unruly Heritage Bjørnar Julius Olsen,Stein Farstadvoll,Geneviève Godin,2024-10-17 Heritage is almost univocally conceived of as valuable and good something we care for and preserve for ourselves and future generations Although traditionally associated with the unique and monumental heritage has over the last decades been broadened in response to claims to incorporate more diverse and globally representative legacies While such claims are of course welcome they do not embrace the bulging unruly and obnoxious legacies that now haunt us legacies that have become so conspicuously manifest that they are claimed as diagnostic of a new epoch the Anthropocene This book targets this exclusion It claims that the current clash between prevailing conceptions of heritage as something confined wished for and thus worth saving and the unruly legacies ignoring such work of purification urges a reconsideration of strategies and rationales for how to deal with heritage Through multidisciplinary approaches ranging from archaeology and heritage studies to philosophy and environmental politics the contributions bring heritage into dialogue with a wide range of topics including industrialisation material profusion modernist architectural material coastal reclamations barbed wire and naval mines The result is a volume that profoundly challenges traditional understandings of heritage as an exclusive reserve of things selected and managed by us Beckett's Laboratory Corey Wakeling,2021-04-22 Offering fresh studies of Samuel Beckett in pre production in rehearsal as an innovator of the script form and as a speculative director and designer Beckett s Laboratory reconsiders Beckett s stringent approach to stage direction through the lens of the laboratory and reveals his experimentalism with stage representation and composition Wakeling argues that acknowledging Beckett s experimental processes from their composition to their reception is crucial to understanding the innovative representations of humanity that emerged at different stages in Beckett s practice Repositioning Beckett s performance oeuvre in relation to philosophy Wakeling draws upon post dramatic symbolist materialist and post structural understandings of theatre performance to reappraise Beckett s plays as a composition for performance The philosophical underpinnings of Beckett s practices are explored through an eclectic mix of familiar and unexplored contemporary theatre productions and films of Beckett s works including Not I Nacht und Tr ume Happy Days Footfalls and Catastrophe Beckett s Laboratory is a provocative examination of Beckett s experimentalism with the human spectacle and his playful reliance upon the interpretative powers of the actors and audience Material Politics in Turkey Duygu Kasdogan,Ekin Kurtiç,Mehmet Ekinçi,2025-01-23 This book explores the role of material entities and processes in shaping political lives in Turkey The unifying thread of its chapters is to challenge the rendering of the material world as a mere background to or object in politics revealing the formative role of material entities and processes in political processes of infrastructure construction knowledge production and technical expertise in Turkey Chapters explore the politics of material entities such as roads canals oilfields and mines as well as less elaborated material sites including military bases soccer fields and wetlands In the context of Turkey s ongoing politics of modernisation these interdisciplinary case studies from the fields of anthropology of infrastructure and extraction science and technology studies and environmental humanities provide important new analytical and theoretical approaches to understanding Turkish politics at local national and transnational scales

Undercover Professor December Gephart,2012-11-19 Rule Number One Must not lie Rule Number Two Must not live with parents Rule Number Three Must have a job Rule Number Four Must not be a friend s ex These dating rules shouldn t be hard for Lucy Benoit to follow after all she made them But she didn t plan on falling for Andy Sullivan a scruffy yet attractive man who lives with his mother and is between jobs These should be deal breakers but in other ways Andy is just her type And there s something intriguing about him Andy isn t the geeky gamer he claims to be not by a long shot But what seemed like a harmless social experiment has put his chances of a relationship with Lucy at risk Even if she can get past the silly rules she has set for herself will she ever forgive him for breaking Rule Number One 53 000 words

Heritage Ecologies Torgeir Rinke Bangstad,Þóra Pétursdóttir,2021-08-23 Heritage Ecologies presents an ecological understanding of heritage that furthers a concern for how its making and unmaking always involves a wide range of human and other than human actors Recognizing the entangled nature cultures of heritage is essential in the Anthropocene era where uncertainty and rapid environmental change force us to recast common conceptions of inheritance and to envision new strategies for preservation Heritage sites are meant to be open and shared spaces and a recurring argument in the cases presented here is that this openness inevitably also overrides our selections orders and appreciations Through a diverse range of case studies the chapters collected in this book aim to explore the affects and memories engendered by diverse heritage ecologies where humans are neither the sole makers nor the only inheritors The common call is that the experiential perceptive and informational plenitude enabled through contributions of other than human actors is key to an ecological rethinking of heritage in the twenty first century Heritage Ecologies is unique in bringing heritage studies into closer proximity with a wide variety of non representational and object oriented theories and is an important volume for students and researchers in archaeology and heritage studies exploring song and singing as a form of protest Pauline Hopkins and the American Dream Alisha Knight, 2011-04-15

Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins was perhaps the most prolific black female writer of her time. Between 1900 and 1904, writing mainly for Colored American Magazine, she published four novels, at least seven short stories, and numerous articles that often addressed the injustices and challenges facing African Americans in post-Civil War America. In Pauline Hopkins and the American Dream, Alisha Knight provides the first full-length critical analysis of Hopkins's work. Scholars have frequently situated Hopkins within the domestic sentimental tradition of nineteenth-century women's writing, with some critics observing that aspects of her writing, particularly its emphasis on the self-made man, seem out of place within the domestic tradition. Knight argues that Hopkins used this often-dismissed theme to critique American society's ingrained racism and sexism. In her Famous Men and Famous Women series for Colored American Magazine, she constructed her own version of the success narrative by offering models of African American self-made men and women. Meanwhile, in her fiction, she depicted heroes who fail to achieve success or must leave the United States to do so. Hopkins risked and eventually lost her position at Colored American Magazine by challenging black male leaders, liberal white philanthropists, and white racists, and by conceiving a revolutionary treatment of the American Dream that placed her far ahead of her time. Hopkins is finally getting her due, and this clear-eyed analysis of her work will be a revelation to literary scholars, historians of African American history, and students of women's studies. Alisha Knight is an associate professor of English and American Studies at Washington College. Her published articles include Furnace Blasts for the Tuskegee Wizard, Revisiting Pauline E. Hopkins, Booker T. Washington and the Colored American Magazine, which appeared in American Periodicals.
