Kalu,2019-12-09 This book is a powerful exploration of the role of women in the evolution of African thinking and narratives on development from the precolonial period right through to the modern day Whilst the book identifies women s oppression and marginalization as significant challenges to contemporary Africa s advancement it also explores how new written narratives draw on traditional African knowledge systems to bring deep rooted and sometimes radical approaches to progress The book asserts that Africans must tell their own stories expressed through the complex meanings and nuances of African languages and often conveyed through oral traditions and storytelling in which women play an important role The book s close examination of language and meaning in the African narrative tradition advances the illumination and elevation of African storytelling as part of a viable and valid knowledge base in its own right rather than as an extension of European paradigms and methods Anthonia C Kalu s new edition of this important book fully revised throughout will also include fresh analysis of the role of digital media education and religion in African narratives At a time when the prominence and participation of African women in development and sociopolitical debates is growing this book s exploration of their lived experiences and narrative contribution will be of interest to students of African literature gender studies development history and sociology Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature Gina Wisker,2006-11-14 Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature provides an overview of the main themes issues and critical perspectives that have had the greatest effect on postcolonial literatures Discussing

Blooming and Contending Michael S. Duke, 1985 Chinese literature has been the slave of politics at least since 1948 and especially during the Cultural Revolution So repressed and convoluted is most Chinese literature that the West cannot read it as literature at all but rather as sociological and political texts Professor Duke believes this has changed enough since 1977 to permit genuine literary analysis This book surveys and analyzes the most important literary events in the PRC from 1977 to 1982 Chapter I covers the significant changes in the Chinese Party line on literature and art during this period and thus provides the backdrop for literary and artistic endeavor Subsequent chapters deal with the critique of Chinese literature by China's own writers the neo realistic fiction of 1979-80 the nonfiction works of a courageous investigative reporter for the People's Daily and the theme of humanism and its treatment in the works of Bai Hua and Dai Houying The final chapter discusses the post Mao generation of young writers who are trying to create works that go beyond narrowly ideological boundaries of the past and reach toward a true modern Chinese literature

Words That Matter Judith H. Anderson, 1996 The grammar and rhetoric of Tudor and Stuart England prioritized words and word like figures rather than sentences a prioritizing that had significant consequences for linguistic representation Examining a wide range of historical sources treatises grammars poems plays rhetorics logics dictionaries and sermons the author investigates how words matter as currency or memento graphic symbol or template icon or topos Shakespeare Survey Stanley Wells,Jonathan Bate,2002-11-28 The first fifty volumes of this yearbook of Shakespeare studies are being reissued in paperback The Postcolonial Exotic Graham Huggan,2002-09-26 Graham Huggan examines some of the processes by which value is given to postcolonial works within their cultural field using both literary critical and sociological methods of analysis The Chivalric Romance and the Essence of Fiction Dani Cavallaro,2015-12-11 Ranging from Chretien de Troyes to Shakespeare this study proposes that the chivalric romance is characterized by a centerless structure self conscious fictionality and a propensity for irony The form is tied to historical reality yet represents the archetype of imaginative literature declaring its fictional status without claiming to embody fixed truths Through use of irony the chivalric romance precludes conclusive interpretations inviting readers to inhabit multifold fantasy worlds while uncompromisingly showing that an ideal world is only a fiction Thus the reader is enjoined to confront the suspension of truth in their own lives The Athenaeum ,1863 Women in Power in the Early Modern Drama Theodora A.
