Notes on an Execution Rhidian

Brook,2025-11-20 Experience Holy Week as if for the first time first hand Bestselling novelist and broadcaster Rhidian Brook invites you to step back into the story of Holy Week and see it unfold as if you were there Told as a series of vivid real time eyewitness reports Notes on an Execution takes you from Jesus arrival in Jerusalem to his execution and beyond without the cushion of hindsight You stand among the crowds and disciples experiencing each moment with all its original tension shock and surprise full of the confusion and hope felt by those who first encountered Jesus A moving final reflection explores what Easter means for us today with thoughtful questions for personal meditation or group discussion Rooted in biblical accounts and historical insight Notes on an Execution brings fresh life to a story that has shaped the world for two thousand years Perfect for Lent reading small groups or personal devotion it will help you see the story you thought you knew with new eyes and feel its urgency and wonder afresh

The to Z of Animation and Cartoons Nichola Dobson,2010-04 Animation was once a relatively simple matter using fairly primitive means to produce rather short films of subjects that were generally comedic and often quite childish However things have changed and they continue changing at a maddening pace One new technique after another has made it easier faster and above all cheaper to produce the material which has taken on an increasing variety of forms The A to Z of Animation and Cartoons is an introduction to all aspects of animation history and its development as a technology and industry beyond the familiar cartoons from the Disney and Warner Bros Studios This is done through a chronology an introductory essay photos a bibliography and over 200 cross referenced dictionary entries on animators directors studios techniques films and some of the best known characters

The Aftermath Rhidian

Brook,2013-09-17 1946 post World War II Hamburg While thousands wander the rubble lost and homeless Colonel Lewis Morgan charged with overseeing the rebuilding of this devastated city and the denazification of its defeated people is stationed in a grand house on the River Elbe He is awaiting the arrival of his wife Rachael still grieving for their eldest son and their only surviving son Edmund But rather than force the owners of the house a German widower and his rebellious daughter out onto the streets Lewis insists that the two families live together In this charged atmosphere both parents and children will be forced to confront their true selves as enmity and grief give way to passion and betrayal to their deepest desires their fiercest loyalties and the transforming power of forgiveness This courageous new novel from award winning author Rhidian Brook tells an emotionally riveting story of two families one house and love grown from hate This ebook edition includes a Reading Group Guide The People's Pictures James Caterer, 2011-08-08 When John Major launched the UK's National Lottery in 1994 he christened it the people's Lottery and handed it to the mythical stewardship of the Everyman But when the proceeds began to be distributed to worthy causes including the British film industry this populist rhetoric came under increasing strain If Lottery funding is used to produce the type of British films which the public want to see such as romantic comedies then many question whether the market deserves such subsidy Short films and low budget experimental cinema which often require state support tend to go unwatched by large swathes of the Lottery ticket buying public This book explores the debates which were sparked by the arrival of the people's pictures and places them in historical context by examining their many precedents Is public patronage a boon or a burden for filmmakers And how do institutional cultures or political buzzwords affect the finished films Case studies include the popular hits Billy Elliot 2000 and Shooting Fish 1997 art house releases such as Love Is The Devil 1998 and Gallivant 1997 short films by Lynne Ramsey and David MacKenzie and artists film and video work by Bill Viola and Tracey Emin
