

The Townsend College Preparatory Reading Test— Form A

INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS

- A. Read each passage and answer the questions that follow.
- B. Answer each question thoughtfully. Show your work and explain your answers and show calculations completely and accurately. Write legibly and clearly.
- C. There is a space at the end of each question where you need to show any work needed to solve the problem. You should show each step and then give a final answer to the question that follows the passage.
- D. The problems themselves are not too hard. Make sure you have understood all the questions and answers and explain.
- E. Show all your work on the problems. If you do not show your work, you will not get credit.
