The Letters of an Unexpected Mystic Robert D. Flanagan, 2022-07-20 The apostle Peter is a pillar of the church whose writing has been overlooked until recently when scholarship remedied this gap significantly elevating Peter's letters However one critical area has been omitted Within the Petrine writing is a robust empowered and beautiful mystical theology which makes Peter an unexpected but vital Christian mystic In exploring his love of artwork German theologian and priest Romano Guardini developed the Threefold Seeing which has been brought to light by Yvonne Dohna Schlobitten of the Pontifical Gregorian University His unique method of viewing the artist artwork and observer develops a way of encountering the world and word Instead of looking at the world or the biblical text through separate vantage points the Threefold Seeing integrates all disciplines under greater view of God the artist of all creation The Letters of an Unexpected Mystic employs Guardini's Threefold Seeing to encounter the mystic Peter and the Petrine mystical theology The result is a book that provides its readers with a means to become the Christian Karl Rahner wrote about in 1971 The devout Christian of the future will either be a mystic one who has experienced something or he will cease to be anything at all

Apocalyptic Patience Andrew Shanks, 2024-07-11 Andrew Shanks brings together a grand narrative of theology and continental philosophy to argue that the solidarity of the shaken is the kingdom of God in secular dress Shanks engages with the philosophy of Jan Patocka specifically his Heretical Essays in the Philosophy of History which culminate in the concept of the solidarity of the shaken Such solidarity is quite simply that which empowers the most radically thoughtful openness to others embattled against even the most repressive closure a solidarity without any other essential qualification Split into three distinct parts Shanks begins by discussing Patocka's philosophico-centric grand narrative and drawing wider reference to the pre-philosophic origins of Abrahamic religious tradition This is followed by an exploration of mystical theology Christian and Islamic of its decay into mysticism and its influence on Christian and Jewish gnostic traditions The final third presents a discussion on ethical phenomenology Analysing the proponents of a pathos of shakenness such as Kierkegaard Levinas Løgstrup he juxtaposes 19th century thinkers such as Arendt and Hegel with Heidegger and Strauss as he moves through the century and eventually to the rise of secular public conscience movement

Visions of the Good Life, 2025-11-13 There is something wrong with us and the world we find ourselves in In the Christian tradition the concept of God's salvation describes the divine intervention to overcome this brokenness However such language might easily be misunderstood in the increasingly secular West To make the reality of the doctrine of salvation understandable relevant and attractive for Europeans in the West we might begin to think of it more in terms of relationship well being and wholeness Using a Biblical term salvation is about the Shalom of the Reign of God This volume explores the lived salvation practices of faith communities and missions and their conceptualisations in the West how is the good life perceived and practiced Contributors are Clive Marsh Jan Martijn Abrahamse Dejan Adaji K Francis Adebayo Philip Bartholom Janel Kragt Bakker Nigel Rooms Karen Zwijze Koning Hans Schaeffer Berdine van den Toren Lekkerkerker Jack Barentsen Chris James Sake Stoppels Annemieke de Jonge Bert Roor Evelien van Duffelen Harvey Kwiyan James Butler Kathy Ross Ross Lockhart and Stefan Paas
