Similarities Nsfas Nd Student Loan:

Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt

Creating the New African University, 2023-05-25 Creating the New African University grapples with the existence of African universities particularly in post independent Africa where Higher Education Institutions HEIs are supposed to live up to the expectations of being adaptive in dealing with prevalent complex dynamic contemporary and future challenges facing African societies The book tackles the issue of what ought to be done for African universities to maintain a structure and identity that ensures their relevance in Africa s development through generating and transforming knowledge into actions for the common good It engages issues within the context of how post colonial transformative obligations have been managed in light of the prevalent epistemological and pedagogical underpinnings that form the foundations of these universities as they seek to break from the clutches of colonial legacies This book further highlights an urgent need to do away with silos and embrace a multidisciplinary interdisciplinary transdisciplinary and cross disciplinary dialogical approach towards knowledge generation Such an approach is essential in efforts aimed at enhancing the sustainable reconfiguration of university structures and functions whilst linking knowledge produced to diverse social economic and political facets of African societies in ways that promote and sustain competitiveness in a rapidly globalising world beset with technological advancements Perspectives on Student Affairs in South Africa McGlory Speckman, Martin Mandew, 2014-07-17 The goal of Perspectives on Student Affairs in South Africa is to generate interest in student affairs in South Africa The papers contained herein are based on best practice local experience and well researched international and local theories The papers in this book deal with matters pertaining to international and national trends in student affairs academic development access and retention counselling and material support for students coming from disadvantaged backgrounds They are linked to national and international developments as described in the first two papers This publication will assist both young and experienced practitioners as they grow into their task of developing the students entrusted to them All contributors are South Africans with a great deal of experience in student affairs and all are committed to the advancement of student affairs in South Africa The editors are former heads of student affairs portfolios at two leading South African universities Student Financing of Higher Education Donald Heller, Claire Callender, 2013-06-07 The financing of higher education is undergoing great change in many countries around the world In recent years many countries are moving from a system where the costs of funding higher education are shouldered primarily by taxpayers through government subsidies to one where students pay a larger share of the costs There are a number of factors driving these trends including A push for massification of higher education in the recognition that additional revenue streams are required above and beyond those funds available from governments in order to achieve higher participation rates Macroeconomic factors which lead to constraints on overall government revenues Political factors which manifest in demands for funding of over services thus restricting the funding available for higher tertiary education A concern that the returns to higher education accrue primarily to the individual rather than to society and thus students should bear more of the burden of paying for it This volume will help to contribute to an understanding of how these trends occur in various countries and regions around the world and the impact they have on higher education institutions students and society as a whole With contributions for the UK USA South Africa and China this vital new book gives a truly global picture of the rapidly changing situation The Next Twenty-five Years David Lee Featherman, Marvin Krislov, Martin Hall, 2009-12-18 A must read for anyone who cares about the future of higher education in diverse democracies Let's Talk About Varsity, 2009 Youth and Higher Education in Africa. The Cases of Cameroon, South Africa, Eritrea and Zimbabwe Donald P. Chimanikire, 2009 Student activism in Africa at least since the early 1990s has been preoccupied with popular struggles for democracy in both their respective countries and institutions of higher learning The changing socio economic and political conditions in many African countries characterized by the decline in economic growth and the introduction of multi party politics among several other factors have had different impact on students and student political organizations in African universities This book recounts the responses of students to these changes in their attempt to negotiate better living and studying conditions The four case studies contained in the book Cameroon South Africa Zimbabwe and Eritrea clearly reveal the very important aspects of the situation in which African students find themselves in many countries and underscores the need to understand the character and development of higher education on the continent Ministries of Higher Education Vice Chancellors Deans of Students Student Unions and parents will find this book very useful in terms of understanding the tensions that often arise at institutions of higher learning and why solutions seem to be elusive

Quality and Inclusion in Education N.V. Varghese, Anjana Mangalagiri, A. Student Loan Schemes ,2009 South Africa Can Work Frans Rautenbach, 2017-08-18 What will it take to turn South Africa around In this insightful and provocative book Frans Rautenbach proposes a complete overhaul of policy thinking and provides fresh arguments that effectively address South Africa s unemployment race problems and lack of education Rautenbach examines the fundamental problem of rent seeking to which he proposes two antidotes the free market and decentralisation of government Along the way he tackles holy cows such as affirmative action trade unions labour law and welfare payments He also addresses contentious topics such as racism white privilege political correctness state funding of higher education and mounting evidence that trade unions substantially suppress employment growth Written by a labour lawyer with a proven track record in a range of policy issues South Africa Can Work speaks effectively to a cross section of readers of all disciplines and brings sorely needed good news Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K.

Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society Discrimination in an Unequal World Miguel Angel Centeno, Katherine S. Newman, 2010-09-01 Discrimination in an Unequal World explores the relationship between discrimination and inequality by comparing and examining what effect globalization has had on discrimination Investigating a broad variety of social relations and practices with an equally broad array of methods it establishes a base with which to effectively compare the varying forms of discrimination of different societies Democratizing Higher Education Policy M.T. Sehoole, 2013-10-14 This book was written with the purpose of analyzing the challenges faced by the post apartheid government in South Africa with regard to reform of higher education It covers the apartheid context of higher education resistance to the system and its ultimate demise democratic processes in post apartheid reform agenda and how this agenda was emptied of its radical content as a result of global and local pressures Highlighted are key constraints in the reform process including the compromise pact agreed upon between the apartheid government and the ruling African National Congress the rapidly globalizing environment underpinned by neoliberal principles within which South Africa's transition took place shifts in macro economic policies of government towards neo liberal policy the inheritance of the bureaucracy and the inexperience of new government officials These are presented in a narrative style that combines the author's experience the voices of key players involved and important data from a range of documentary sources This is the first single authored book in post apartheid South African that has systematically looked at higher education reform

Universities, Employability and Human Development Melanie Walker, Samuel Fongwa, 2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability

Manage Your Money Like a Grownup Sam Beckbessinger, 2020-09-01 You re never too young to start saving Manage Your Money Like a Grownup by bestselling author Sam Beckbessinger aims to get younger readers thinking about the basics of money laying a solid foundation in financial education that most grownups today never had With illustrations jokes and fun facts designed to appeal to even the most easily bored reader this book covers all the basics South African teenagers need to know about money such as The relationship between earning saving and spending How investing works Why compound interest is a superpower Why we pay taxes and The ethics of money Informed by discussions with real teens and their parents this book equips readers with practical tips for earning and investing money at any age as well as providing questions to spark lively dinner table conversations

Accessing Post-School Studies Venicia McGhie & Madge du Preez, 2017-12-01 Accessing Post School Studies A student s GPS to successful learning makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and S lj The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment Prof Victor N Teise Sol Plaatje University Kimberley South Africa

Transforming Universities in South Africa , 2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11 ,
