But with so many ready-to-cook ingredients now available in the supermarket, it is far easier to create fast, attractive, and delicious Indian dishes. Mridula Baljekar, the rising star of Indian cooking, shows that all you need is a little organization and a few vital simple steps, then you too will be able to recreate her tasty and authentic meals in no time at all. Mridula's recipes, gathered from her many travels round India, range from chicken chick pea pilau, spiced prawns, to vegetarian dishes like black eye beans and mushroom. They are both quick and easy and far superior to the bland, ready-prepared dishes sold in the supermarkets. No recipe takes longer than 45 minutes from preparation to serving, and menus are also included. Mridula shows how a three-course Indian meal takes just 60 minutes from worktop to table. The book to replace heat and eat curries any day of the week. Real Fast Indian Food is set to become an essential title for every kitchen.

Want to learn to cook Don t know where or how to start Try this I am not a professional chef I am just a food lover who has learnt to cook good home food It s taken me a while perfecting each of these dishes to the point that they are repeatable So if I can cook these recipes then so can you You do not need a huge kitchen with endless cupboards full of stuff Just a few essential things like a pestle and mortar and a spice grinder together they make most curries reasonably quick and easy to make a selection of good sharp knives and a sharpener a few metal oven trays a few oven dishes and a few pots and pans I have always enjoyed good food and was fortunate to work in a job that kept me fit Home cooking has always been a normal everyday pleasure and even after a long days work I would happily come home and cook a stir fry for the family in 30 minutes Not only did it help clear my mind it also provided a healthy meal after a tough day When the pandemic struck I was home like everyone else So the radio was a constant companion during the long quiet days Slowly listening to talk shows I realised how difficult it was for many families How do we feed the family every day three times a day The need to learn to cook became a serious one Home cooked food is also healthy food so to begin to learn has that added bonus too So with encouragement from family and friends I decided to write My Lockdown Cookbook hoping I might help just some of those families who wanted to learn but did not know how to If I can help some people in some small way to begin to enjoy home cooked food then I will be very happy
