The 21st Century Maritime Silk Road Keyuan Zou, Shicun Wu, Qiang Ye, 2019-07-09 This book explores the opportunities and challenges that both Europe and Asia face under the framework of the 21st Century Maritime Silk Road Initiative The 21st Century Maritime Silk Road Initiative MSR Initiative put forward by the Chinese government together with the Silk Road Economic Belt reflects China's ambition and vision to shape the global economic and political order The first step and priority under the MSR Initiative according to documents issued by China is to build three Blue Economic Passages linking China with the rest of the world at sea two of which will connect China with Europe This initiative however still faces enormous challenges of geopolitical suspicion and security risks This book seeks to assess these risks and their causes for the cooperation between the Eurasian countries under the framework of MSR and puts forward suggestions to deal with these risks in the interdisciplinary perspectives of international relations and international law Featuring a global team of contributors this book will be of much interest to students of Asian politics maritime security international law and international relations Tomorrow's Silk Road Jacques Pelkmans, Joseph Francois

Francois, 2018-06-19 This CEPS book comprises a first ever economic and regulatory analysis of a possible Free Trade Area FTA between China and the EU whose design is supposed to be deep and comprehensive It provides an overview of the global economic environment in which EU Chinese economic relations have developed in recent years including global value chains linking the two economies The substance of the FTA design is then elaborated in nine largely empirical and technical chapters ranging from tariff analysis at the 6 and 8 digit level and technical barriers to trade to services government procurement and investment A third part comprises a CGE model based empirical simulation of the economic effects on GDP per member state and on China bilateral trade in goods and services wages for workers with three distinct skill levels and a series of goods and services sectors The year long study was led by Jacques Pelkmans of CEPS and the research was carried out by a team of trade specialists at CEPS in partnership with another team of researchers led by Prof Joseph Francois of the World Trade Institute WTI in Bern The European Union and China's Belt and Road Vassilis Ntousas, Stephen

Minas, 2021-08-10 This book explores key elements of European Union EU engagement with the Belt Road Initiative BRI drawing on the expertise of leading practitioners and scholars of EU China relations Under the theme of discerning the BRI and its nexus with the EU chapters examine the nature of the BRI as China's approach to global governance and consider how BRI intersects with the EU as a very different regional integration project Under the theme of BRI factors in EU law and policy chapters examine the BRI as a factor in specific domains of EU law and policy including investment finance the environment and the COVID 19 pandemic and consider EU responses Under the theme of EU Member State experiences chapters present a series of case studies of individual Member States their engagement with the BRI and ongoing policy debates This book will be of interest to scholars and students of International Relations EU external relations Chinese public policy and foreign relations European studies and security studies as well as policymakers dealing with China in EU and Member State institutions China's New Silk Road Dreams Noesselt Nele, 2021-11-30 The contributions compiled in this issue engage in critical evaluation of China's New Silk Road initiative Belt and Road Initiative BRI by focusing on the potential long term political and economic effects and implications for Sino European and Sino African relations The authors take the launching of the BRI October 2013 as a starting point for a general theory guided qualitative re evaluation of the basic patterns of Chinese foreign relations and global interactions under the fifth generation of Chinese political leaders In 2013 the Chinese state president Xi Jinping framed BRI as a global connectivity network consisting of a multitude of overland passages and maritime transportation corridors Xi Jinping's report to the 19th Party Congress 2017 set the BRI as an anchor concept of China's fine tuned foreign strategy in the 21st century One Belt, One Road, One Story? Alister Miskimmon, Ben

O'Loughlin, Jinghan Zeng, 2020-12-21 This book explores the emerging EU China relationship with a focus on the impact of the Belt and Road Initiative It takes a narrative approach to understanding the EU China relationship as a means to highlight how scholars in the EU and China interpret the narrativization of EU China bilateral relations and to how this bilateral relationship is refracted through relations with third parties The volume brings together scholars from China and Europe in the fields of Chinese foreign policy EU studies and strategic communication The empirical focus cuts across policy publics and media and across history political economy and diplomacy The Belt and Road Initiative alongside the other policy areas addressed in the chapters offers ways for people in Europe and China to get to know one another in new ways and for the EU and its member states and the Chinese state to forge new partnerships The Rough Guide to China David
