Similarities And Differences Between Nfsas And Other Student Loans:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt The Next Twenty-five Years David Lee Featherman, Marvin Krislov, Martin Hall, 2009-12-18 A must read for anyone who cares about the future of higher education in diverse democracies From School to Higher Education? Michael Cosser, Jacques Du Toit, 2002 This substantive report is essential reading for those involved in higher education planning and policy making Creating the New African University , 2023-05-25 Creating the New African University grapples with the existence of African universities particularly in post independent Africa where Higher Education Institutions HEIs are supposed to live up to the expectations of being adaptive in dealing with prevalent complex dynamic contemporary and future challenges facing African societies The book tackles the issue of what ought to be done for African universities to maintain a structure and identity that ensures their relevance in Africa s development through generating and transforming knowledge into actions for the common good It engages issues within the context of how post colonial transformative obligations have been managed in light of the prevalent epistemological and pedagogical underpinnings that form the foundations of these universities as they seek to break from the clutches of colonial legacies This book further highlights an urgent need to do away with silos and embrace a multidisciplinary interdisciplinary transdisciplinary and cross disciplinary dialogical approach towards knowledge generation Such an approach is essential in efforts aimed at enhancing the sustainable reconfiguration of university structures and functions whilst linking knowledge produced to diverse social economic and political facets of African societies in ways that promote and sustain competitiveness in a rapidly globalising world beset with technological advancements

Discrimination in an Unequal World Miguel Angel Centeno, Katherine S. Newman, 2010-09 Is globalization making our world more equal or less Proponents of globalization argue that it is helping and that in a competitive world no one can afford to discriminate except on the basis of skills Opponents counter that globalization does nothing but provide a meritocratic patina on a consistently unequal distribution of opportunity Yet despite the often deafening volume of the debate there is surprisingly little empirical work available on the extent to which the process of globalization over the past quarter century has had any effect on discrimination Tackling this challenge Discrimination in an Unequal World explores the relationship between discrimination and unequal outcomes in the appropriate geographical and historical context Noting how each society tends to see its particular version of discrimination as universal and obvious the editors expand their set of cases to include a broad variety of social relations and practices However since methods differ and are often designed for particular national circumstances they set the much more ambitious and practical goal of establishing a base with which different forms of discrimination across the world can be compared Derived from a broad array of methods the book draws many important lessons on the new means by which the world creates social hierarchies the democratization of inequality and the disappearance of traditional categories

Service-Learning Paradigms Kenneth Colburn, Jr., Rona Newmark, 2007-07 The papers in this volume have been selected primarily from the presentations at the International Symposium on Service Learning cosponsored by Stellenbosch University in South Africa and the University of Indianapolis in the United States It aims to explore service learning paradigms for the 21st century New Paradigms for Theory Research and Curriculum Development New Paradigms for Teaching and Learning and Paradigms for Intercommunity and Interdisciplinary Collaboration This volume provides clear evidence that the paradigm of service learning has gone global and international Service learning has become the new coin of the academic and civic realm for issues of connecting teaching scholarship and community services

Evidence-based Policy Making for Youth Well-being A Toolkit OECD, 2017-10-17 With 1.2 billion people today's youth population aged 15-24 represents the largest cohort ever to enter the transition to adulthood Close to 90% of these young people live in developing countries and the numbers will practically double in the least developed countries Government Managing Risk Bruce Chapman, 2006-09-27 Higher education rates are increasing throughout the Western world yet at the same time government budgets face increasing constraints This has ensured that the importance of student support is recognized in many countries In recent years there has been a world wide movement towards the use of income contingent loans ICL for higher education ICLs are now used in six countries following the Australian innovation of 1989 with the governments of many more countries looking very seriously at the model This impressive new book by Bruce Chapman analyzes ICLs particularly their use in supporting students exploring the experiences of a number of other countries adopting them Chapman presents analysis of a number of disparate case studies to illustrate how ICLs can aid risk management policy reforming in both progressive and administratively feasible ways This book describes examines and promotes an exciting new role for the public sector as a manager of risk and argues that ICLs have enormous potential to change the extent and nature of social and economic activities With the author's experience in the design and implementation of the Australian student financial support schemes this is a knowledgeable informative and enlightening book that will be useful to researchers students and policy makers alike ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11 , Universities, Employability and Human Development Melanie Walker, Samuel Fongwa, 2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability Handbook of the Economics of Education Eric A. Hanushek, F. Welch, 2006-11-29 Vol 4 edited by Eric A Hanushek Stephen Machin Ludger Woessmann What is the value of an education Volume 4 combines recent data with new methodologies to examine this and related questions from diverse perspectives School choice and school competition educator incentives the college premium and other considerations help make sense of the investments and returns associated with education Cost-sharing and Accessibility in Higher Education: A Fairer Deal? Pedro N. Teixeira, D. Bruce Johnstone, Maria J. Rosa, Hans Vossensteyn, 2007-11-23 Higher education finances lie at the crossroads in many Western countries Hence worldwide the most common approach to the need for increasing revenue was to use some form or forms of cost sharing or the shift of some of the higher educational per student costs from governments and taxpayers to parents and students This raises several important challenges to higher education systems First there is the political and social controversy associated with most forms of cost sharing particularly with tuition fees Secondly there are important issues in terms of the broad context of social policy such as the role of families and students and the relationship that the state establishes with each of them Third there is the comparison of alternative instruments of cost sharing and the direct and indirect effects of each of them notably in terms of educational equality Overall underlying cost sharing debates are fundamental questions about social choice individual opportunities and the role of government in society Contextualised Critical Reflections on Academic Development Practices Teboho Pitso, 2021-04-20 This book offers insightful reflections on academic development practices The contributors engage the reader painstakingly in the dynamics of professional learning and effective teaching This volume facilitates the examination of the need for reflection that leads to professional maturity All educational institutions seek teachers who continuously search for effective strategies in improving student success The
