South Africa Can Work Frans Rautenbach, 2017-08-18 What will it take to turn South Africa around In this insightful and provocative book Frans Rautenbach proposes a complete overhaul of policy thinking and provides fresh arguments that effectively address South Africa's unemployment race problems and lack of education Rautenbach examines the fundamental problem of rent seeking to which he proposes two antidotes the free market and decentralisation of government Along the way he tackles holy cows such as affirmative action trade unions labour law and welfare payments He also addresses contentious topics such as racism white privilege political correctness state funding of higher education and mounting evidence that trade unions substantially suppress employment growth Written by a labour lawyer with a proven track record in a range of policy issues South Africa Can Work speaks effectively to a cross section of readers of all disciplines and brings sorely needed good news Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country's developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy Finweek, 2006-11

Shaping the Future of South Africa's Youth Helene Perold, Nico Cloete, Joy Papier, 2012 Why solving ongoing problems with the NQF National Qualifications Framework matters The challenges unemployment imposes on youth The challenge of youth to work transitions an international perspective A statistical overview of further education and training colleges Strengthening the capacity of FET Colleges to meet the needs of young people Higher education and an expanded post school educational system Trends in training in South Africa Key issues in the assessment of South Africa's national skills development strategy Opening the doors of learning Viewing the post school education and training landscape from a youth perspective Manage Your Money Like a Grownup Sam Beckbessinger, 2020-09-01 You're never too young to start saving Manage Your Money Like a Grownup by bestselling author Sam Beckbessinger aims to get younger readers thinking about the basics of money laying a solid foundation in financial education that most grownups today never had With illustrations jokes and fun facts designed to appeal to even the most easily bored reader this book covers all the basics South African teenagers need to know about money such as The relationship between earning saving and spending How investing works Why compound interest is a superpower Why we pay taxes and The ethics of money Informed by discussions with real teens and their parents this book equips readers with practical tips for earning and investing money at any age as well as providing questions to spark lively dinner table conversations Universities, Employability and Human Development Melanie Walker, Samuel Fongwa, 2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability
