

JACK AND JILL
BY MOTHER GOOSE

Jack and Jill went up the hill
To fetch a pail of water;
Jack fell down and broke his crown,
and Jill came tumbling after.

Up Jack got, and home did trot,
As fast as he could caper,
To old Dame Dob, who patched his nob
With vinegar and brown paper.

The Poetry of Sermons Robert Granger, 2020-01-09 The title of this book is predicated on the probability that within each of us perhaps hiding in secret dwells a skeptic a cynic and a seeker The skeptic within thinks it knows some truth but isn't quite sure which is real truth and which may not be quite so true The cynic within is confused by the distance between the beliefs that some profess and the behaviors and attitudes exhibited in their daily life And the seeker within likes to feel encouraged to ask questions and to explore the mysteries that the unfolding wonder of life continually sets before us Bringing all of these to the reading of the sermons will enrich the experience sometimes stimulating deeper questions and sometimes offering inspiring insights

Breath of Praise Henry L. Lyon, 2017-05-25 In the beginning God gave us the breath of life Now we with every breath need to praise God and all His creation His breath we breathe should be a reminder of His love and mercy that He pours out on all mankind How blessed we are to be sharing the breath of our Holy perfect GOD Because these poems envelop many situations they all can be applied in our everyday life and give us solutions to our problems with answers found in the Bible God is here to give you not only His breath but Salvation through His Son JESUS CHRIST Please join me in praising our Lord for His free grace filled breath of life With each breath we take PRAISE YE the LORD

put on the mind of Christ as Scripture commands Can people really get so close to Christ that they not only know his mind but also take on his thinking And what does this mean for Christian discipleship the Church the ordinary person of faith David Scott writer and poet has reflected on this central theme of Christianity over a lifetime's ministry in the Anglican church He writes with engaging honesty about his personal thoughts and yet brings a theological rigour to his analysis He combines a down to earth practicality with profound engagement with the texts of Scripture The result is a gem of a book He writes as follows in his introduction Put on the mind of Christ what that phrase with its concentration on mind does not immediately evoke is the way in which the rattle bag of feelings about things the heartaches the heart searchings the lifting up of the heart have coalesced and been informed by the sharper tougher attitudes of mind We shall see in the case of Jesus that those two concepts heart and mind become one orientation attitude and spring for action They also provide one unmoveable pointer for us to a destination we trust in as we set out to know Christ and be known by him and so to enter into a creative relationship with the very centre of our faith Index to Poetry--Supplement; Indexing Anthologies
