Peter,2018-10-16 Originally published in 1996 Art for All is aimed at the non specialist teacher of art and offers a practical approach for working with pupils with wide ranging learning needs It presents a developmental framework for art in the light of National Curriculum requirements with strategies for structuring and supporting appropriate art activity It is presented in two volumes with colour illustrations The Framework which describes the principles of art education in relation to pupils learning difficulties and The Practice which deals with the specifics of delivering these principles in the classroom Whilst they stand as independent texts they are intended to be used together Art for All will be of interest to all those working in this and related fields in mainstream as well as special education Beyond Technology David Buckingham,2013-04-17

Beyond Technology offers a challenging new analysis of learning young people and digital media Disputing both utopian fantasies about the transformation of education and exaggerated fears about the corruption of childhood innocence it offers a level headed analysis of the impact of these new media on learning drawing on a wide range of critical research Buckingham argues that there is now a growing divide between the media rich world of childrens lives outside school and their experiences of technology in the classroom Bridging this divide he suggests will require more than superficial attempts to import technology into schools or to combine education with digital entertainment While debunking such fantasies of technological change Buckingham also provides a constructive alternative arguing that young people need to be equipped with a new form of digital literacy that is both critical and creative Beyond Technology will be essential reading for all students of the media or education as well as for teachers and other education professionals Economics Of Information Technology And The Media Linda Low,2000-01-03 Interest in information technology and the media is growing apace This book has been specially written to provide an economics framework for analysing the nature and scope as well as issues pertaining to the new information and communication technology and revolution It also presents some trends and perspectives from the Asia Pacific region While the economic principles of efficiency and competition are the same everywhere many socio political issues with respect to information technology and the media are unique to some specific cultural contexts The book will be useful to students researchers and policymakers in mass communication information technology and the media
