Seaman Recruit (E-1)

The seaman recruit's job is to learn the culture and basic skills needed to be in the Navy. The seaman will be assigned to an occupational field or rate. There are five broad rate categories: aviation, construction, surface, hospital, and support.

Seaman Apprentice (E-2)

A Seaman Apprentice continues their education by attending classroom training (if school) within their rating. They will also be trained with some manual duties. Promotion to SA is generally automatic within six months of beginning their military service.

Seaman (E-3)

By this time sailors have been promoted to seaman. They should have met basic qualifications and will be assigned responsibilities such as essential maintenance and watchstanding.

Petty Officer Third Class (E-4)

Petty officer third class requires leadership skills in addition to technical expertise. They mentor junior sailors and take on increasing leadership responsibilities. Those who are looking to advance will still carry duty assignments or collateral duties.

Petty Officer Second Class (E-5)

Those who are advanced to petty officer second class continue developing their technical skills through advanced training within their rating (if school). They also continue to develop their leadership and mentoring skills for the increased responsibilities that come with this promotion.

Petty Officer First Class (E-6)

A petty officer first class requires career advancement and plans a leadership role in their division team of E-4/E-5 sailors. They also manage more significant resources and delegate tasks.

Chief Petty Officer (E-7)

As a senior noncommissioned officer, the chief petty officer has technical expertise and strong leadership skills. They are given more authority and are responsible for training and mentoring junior noncommissioned officers. They handle personnel and equipment issues, along with the division officer.

Senior Chief Petty Officer (E-8)

Senior chief petty officers typically serve as department chiefs or work as technical master chiefs. They are relied on for their technical expertise and managerial expertise. They are responsible for training and equipment.

Master Chief Petty Officer (E-9)

The master chief petty officer serves as department chief and is responsible for mentoring, communication, and cooperation among the petty officers. They must also have significant expertise in their field.

Command Master Chief Petty Officer

In the U.S. Navy, the command master chief petty officer is the senior enlisted advisor at a command and at such works as a liaison between the commanding officer and the enlisted ranks, serving as the senior enlisted leader.

Master Chief Petty Officer of the Navy

The Master Chief Petty Officer of the Navy is appointed by the Chief of Naval Operations to serve as a spokesperson to address the issues of enlisted personnel to the highest positions in the Navy.
