Local Food and Community Development Gary Paul Green, Rhonda Phillips, 2014-10-20 Food has become an essential component in community development practice Whether in reference to building a local or regional food system or addressing food insecurity food has become a focus in community development approaches in many localities Farmers markets community gardens farm to school programs and other food centered initiatives have been used to foster community development processes across a spectrum of desired outcomes The surging interest in food for fostering community development draws attention to numerous applications ranging from grassroots efforts to formal programs sponsored by the public or nonprofit sectors These efforts are often in conjunction with local private businesses helping create micro businesses and supporting the small farm movement Some regions are even considering economic development strategies of food clusters to promote speciality food businesses and supporting programs This volume explores the relationships between food and community and the various approaches for development through a selection of chapters illustrating a wide range of applications This book is a compilation of articles published in the journal Community Development The Performance of Socially Responsible Investment Funds in Europe Eva Maria Kreibohm, 2016-11-30 Socially responsible investing SRI is an investment approach that combines investors financial as well as nonfinancial goals in the security selection process Technically investors can engage in SRI either by directly investing in companies that implement corporate social activities or by investing their money in SRI funds which apply screening criteria to select securities The screening process applied by the SRI funds has led to controversy among academics regarding whether the use of SRI screens in the security selection process influences the financial performance of the funds The empirical study analyzes whether or not the screening process applied by such funds influences their financial performance Previous research mostly has focused on analyzing the performance of SRI equity funds established in the United States The study at hand not only includes SRI equity funds but also SRI balanced and fixed income funds established in Europe the biggest market for SRI globally The study provides unexpected results that are not only of interest for investors who want to get a better understanding of the effect on the financial performance of their portfolios in case SRI funds are added The results are also relevant for SRI fund managers who are interested in promoting their funds and attracting new investors and for academics whose research interests are e g located in the fields of SRI fund portfolio performances and market efficiencies Encyclopedia of Business Information Sources James Woy, 2001-09

Trading Off Competing Allocation Principles Lars Schwettmann, 2009 In this book the tenability of prominent but conflicting allocation principles is evaluated with the help of questionnaire studies Particularly the acceptance of a compromise solution is investigated which demands maximising total welfare subject to a certain floor level of individual welfare of all people An interdisciplinary approach is followed to motivate each survey With the help of graphical presentations consequences of different principles are visualised Trade offs between competing notions are found to be much more likely than possibly expected Heterogeneity of justice attitudes can be witnessed in all studies However the principles of responsibility and needs seem to be of greater importance Additionally the gender of a respondent is found to have a major impact Using Econometrics: A Practical Guide, Global Edition A.
