

8th GRADE GRADUATION SPEECH 2012

Welcome friends, families, colleagues and all you shiny, beautiful people behind me. I'm honored to stand here tonight to say a few words about this impressive bunch. Putting pen to paper doesn't come naturally to me, but as the 8th graduating class of 2012 knows, telling a story does. Don't worry guys, I won't recount the tales about the trailer, the Indian cook, mean Josephine, monkeys chasing me down a mountain, the dishonest high school boyfriend or even the romantic tale of how I met my husband – (popular with girls and boys alike!).

I was brought up on the oral tradition of storytelling, listening to my grandfather, father and mother relay tales from their childhoods – some funny, some horrifying, some slightly inappropriate - but always worth listening to. What's important about telling and hearing a story, I think, is that it un.masks us in a way and defines us as human beings. Sharing a story about ourselves helps us understand who we are and helps those listening navigate their own lives as well. Sharing a story teaches it's okay to let people in, to be generous, to show our imperfect selves. And as listeners, we relish a story - it's magic that draws us in – hearing about the good, the bad, the funny, the devastating – the things that make us all human. Why else does Jack Pates lean in to hear every word I'm saying as I reveal the trials and tribulations of my childhood? Why else does an entire gaggle of middle schoolers gather around Mark Drexel at the mention of his Ax story? It may just be a fascination with finding out the dirt on teachers, but as someone who has made a life dramatizing stories on stage, I know it's more than that...

So, here's a story...once upon a time, when I was pretty darned old, I had the daunting task of writing a graduation speech. I took some notes, I tossed and turned several nights imagining expounding on Shakespeare or Sondheim (as a good Drama teacher should do). I thought about your connections to each other, to me and to everyone at Tandem. I thought about why I teach drama and what YOU'VE taught ME and your other teachers by creating and living your own interesting stories...

You've certainly taught us about drama...after all, this is middle school, where drama runs rampant like a baby monkey riding backwards on a pig (footnote – Youtube video – thank you Emma Kane!). But seriously, you've taught us more than you can know and the proof is in "The tale WITHIN the tale." (This where I tell tales on you!)

Once upon a time there was a group of 8th graders with separate stories who all came together to make one giant story:

We'll begin with the story of creative Coley who did not let the NO SKATEBOARDING sign in Washington Square Park deter him from following his passion in NY ...not to mention the charisma it took to convince me to buy a do-rag for his pineapple, which many of us devoured on the train ride home (the pineapple – not the do-rag.)

There's the story of warm-hearted William with his didgeridoo in NYC – and his big moment of glory as an audience participant during Godspell on Broadway. His story is

Words Were All We Had Maria de la Ruz Reyes, 2015-04-17 This engaging collection examines the personal narratives of a select group of well respected educators who attained biliteracy when they were young students and in the era before bilingual education These autobiographical accounts celebrate and make visible a linguistic potential that has been largely ignored in schools the inextricable and emotional ties that Latinos have to Spanish The authors offer teachers important lessons about the individual potential of their Latino students These stories of tenacity and resilience offer hope for a new generation of bilingual learners who are too often forced to choose between English and their native language The Cult Next Door Judith L. Carlone, Elizabeth R. Burchard, LSW, 2017-03-18 During Thanksgiving vacation of her freshman year at Swarthmore College 1977 Elizabeth at her mother's insistence attended a stress reduction session with a biofeedback technician on staff at a Manhattan psychologist's office During that first visit this man filled her ears with prophetic visions of a glorious future the inheritance of those fortunate few who might choose to accompany him His confidence and charisma entranced her and she soon recruited two of her college roommates When the psychologist fired his assistant two years later Elizabeth and her mother followed Over the next decade this man a malevolent genius and master of manipulating metaphysical concepts to benefit a self-serving agenda organized a small dedicated band of followers The Group evolved into an incestuous family a cult Their brainwashed minds became fused with a distinctive New Age doctrine A coterie of spiritual Navy Seals they scrambled in terror training to survive the inevitable cataclysm one man's divine vision of Armageddon Subsequent to a momentous event in August 1994 with the guru as high priest The Black Dog Religion was born Elizabeth sank into a pit of despair darker than she ever could have imagined was possible From the adolescent gullibility which seduced her astray to the enlightenment which led her to freedom you will travel an incredible journey For anyone who has ever been trapped by a person who would not let them go within this book lies a message of hope The Snake Charmer Milo Kensrue, First Hitler, Then Your Father, and Now You Deborah Long, 2010 A memoir written by the daughter of two Holocaust survivors The author describes her childhood adolescence and adulthood in often funny sympathetic and compelling stories of growing up in a suburban Chicago household with a father who wanted to live every day as though it were his last and a mother who wanted more than anything to recapture what she lost Back cover Echoes Josephine "Jo" McComas Fulks, 2013-11-25 This story is a true depiction of life during and following the Great Depression era when much of the populace was suffering from the lack of bare necessities Scores of those living in that period of time were deprived of the very basics unless of course they could live off the land as the farmers did The government controlled some items such as sugar and coffee and only a limited supply was allotted according to the availability and the level of need Other hardships endured included the mode of transportation the primitive methods used in farming and the effort to provide for the general well being of families some of them having several members The story takes the author through the survival marriage and raising her own family as the effects of the depression were waning My Angel and Me Martha Manning, 2018-01-25 God communicates with me protects me and shows me His love through an angel which He gave to me when I was born in Martinez Georgia in 1936 My story takes place in the small towns of Martinez and Evans Georgia until I became seventeen years of age After high school graduation I married a Methodist minister and the South Carolina Methodist bishop sent us to churches in different areas of South Carolina In this book the reader will find out exactly how life was spent in each of these churches When my husband died in 2006 I moved to Rock Hill South Carolina and that is where I live now My angel has provided guidance and assistance to me throughout my entire life and this fact is illustrated in this book through actual experiences As you see my angel on the front of this book is wearing a tilted halo to show the world that life is not always perfect but we can receive guidance to help us through all of life's situations Three times I have seen my angel in person Other times I have felt the angel's presence and heard the words spoken by my angel My angel lets me know that God is near me Read this book to discover the three times my angel thought it was most important to visit me in person As you read I pray that you will be aware of your angel in your life guiding you Remember God is your Heavenly Father and His desire is to love you Your faith will acknowledge the hand of God caring for you He Loves Me, He Luvd Me Not! Episode 1 Darice Ray, 2023-05-09

He Loves Me He loved Me Not Captures captivates and leaves an emotional heart stopping gut wrenching impression that will leave you in tears It tells the story of a young woman that caught herself up in a domestic violence relationship of 7 years At the hands of a man she knew she shouldn't have been with This book not only reveals her triumph over tragedy of how it took her 7 years to get out 7 years to heal and 7 years to overcome domestic violence It leaves a lasting experience that one will not forget A live illustration taking the reader blow by blow of the night she was ambushed shot in the face with a shotgun and left permanently blind while 3 of her children were sitting in the back seat of the car
