of glass snap under my feet as I tread quietly into what was my best friend's apartment. Now as I frantically look around in horror I know that the worst has happened: she has been taken by the Gestapo. And I realise with certainty what I have to do next but will I be too late to save her? From the moment the Nazis arrived in Vienna I knew everything would change especially for my closest friend Judith. The very fact that she is Jewish means she is in danger but I hoped that she'd get her visa in time to leave the country. That they wouldn't come for her. But I was wrong. And when Judith is taken by the Gestapo I realise I only have one choice: save my dearest friend or betray the man I love. Because I am a diplomat's wife I know I can steal the papers that will allow Judith to escape to safety. It's the hardest choice I have ever had to make but I know I must be brave and do the right thing no matter what. And besides I've started to wonder which side of the war my husband Edgar is really on. Ever since I joined him in Europe I've watched him grow distant and secretive. And as his behavior gets stranger and he pushes me even further away I begin to wonder how well do I know the man that lies beside me every night. So as I creep into my husband's study in the dead of night I know in my heart I'm doing the right thing. But will I be too late to save my best friend and if I get caught what will happen to me? An absolutely heartbreaking powerful and gripping story about finding love, resilience and friendship in the midst of the darkness of World War 2. Perfect for fans of The Nightingale. My Name is Eva and All the Light We Cannot See. Praise for The American Wife. Fantastic. Wonderful. Superb. I did not want to put this story down.
