Benedict two critically influential figures for the development of Latin medieval philosophical and theological cultures Teubner analyses and exemplifies the particular theme of prayer and the other topics it constellates in Augustine and to show how it already forms a distinctively Augustinian concept of tradition that was to prove to have fascinatingly diverse manifestations Part I traces the development of Augustine's understanding of prayer Patience and hope as articulated in prayer sit at the centre of Augustine's understanding of Christian existence In Part II Teubner turns to suggest how this is picked up by Boethius and Benedict History of the Christian Church, Volume VI: The Middle Ages.
