Routledge Handbook of International Law and the Humanities Shane Chalmers, Sundhya Pahuja, 2021-05-19 This Handbook brings together 40 of the world s leading scholars and rising stars who

study international law from disciplines in the humanities from history to literature philosophy to the visual arts to showcase the distinctive contributions that this field has made to the study of international law over the past two decades Including authors from Australia Canada Europe India South Africa the UK and the USA all the contributors engage the question of what is distinctive and critical about the work that has been done and that continues to be done in the field of international law and the humanities For many of these authors answering this question involves reflecting on the work they themselves have been contributing to this path breaking field since its inception at the end of the twentieth century For others it involves offering models of the new work they are carrying out or else reflecting on the future directions of a field that has now taken its place as one of the most important sites for the study of international legal practice and theory Each of the book's six parts foregrounds a different element or cluster of elements of international law and the humanities from an attention to the office conduct and training of the jurist and jurisprudent Part 1 to scholarly craft and technique Part 2 to questions of authority and responsibility Part 3 history and historiography Part 4 plurality and community Part 5 as well as the challenge of thinking and rethinking international legal concepts for our times Part 6 Outlining new ways of imagining and doing international law at a moment in time when original critical thought and practice is more necessary than ever this Handbook will be essential for scholars students and practitioners in international law international relations as well as in law and the humanities more generally

Queering Women's and Gender Studies Begoña Crespo, Isabel Moskowich, 2016-12-14 This volume brings together approaches to and perspectives on English Spanish and Galician language literature and culture from the fields of women's gender and queer studies As its title reflects the book adopts an inclusive attitude to the so called others present in these fields Since queer theory first appeared in academia its influence has been notorious within both women's and genders As such it is vital to queer academia so that it re conceptualises its foundations indeed the contributions here serve to alter the reader's consciousness of the terms woman and gender The first chapters concern the field of discourse analysis Two discuss the written work of female scientists in the Late Modern Era and their role in society Another deals with women's political discourse in South America In the following section on literature the contributors question the current heteronormative and androcentric ways of reading texts The works on culture study contemporary genres such as video games video clips and pieces of news and take readers away from Europe The Epilogue draws on the book's intersubjective spirit to propose a dialogue among multiple disciplines and the people who practise them As such the volume reflects the eclectic nature of queer women's and gender studies and their world wide acceptance by the scholarly community

Generational Feminism Iris van der Tuin, 2014-11-12 Iris van der Tuin redirects the notion of generational logic in feminism away from its simplistic conception as conflict Generational logic is said to problematize feminist theory and gender research as it follows a logic of divide and conquer between the old and the young and participates in patriarchal structures and phallogocentrism Examining the continental philosophies of Bergson and Deleuze and French feminisms of sexual difference van der Tuin paves the way for a more complex notion of generationality This new conception of the term views generational cohorts as static measurements that happen in the flow of being Prioritizing this generative flow gives what is measured its proper place as an effect Generational Feminism New Materialist Introduction to a Generative Approach experiments with a previously disregarded methodology s implications as an impetus for a new materialism and advances feminist politics for the twenty first century Mapping the Posthuman Grant Hamilton,Carolyn

Lau,2023-12-22 This book works to delineate some of the major routes by which science and art intersect Structured according to the origin myths of the posthuman that continue to shape the idea of the human in our technological modernity this volume gives space to narratives of alter modernity that resonate with Ursula K Le Guin s call for a new kind of story which exposes the violence and exploitation driven by a sustained belief in human exceptionalism anthropocentrism and cultural superiority In this context the posthuman myths of multispecies flourishing given in this collection which are situated across a range of historical times and locations and media and modalities are to be thought of as kernels of possible futures that can only be realized through collective endeavour The Routledge Handbook of International Law and

Anthropocentrism Vincent Chapaux,Frédéric Mégret,Usha Natarajan,2023-06-15 This handbook explores contextualises and critiques the relationship between anthropocentrism the idea that human beings are socially and politically at the centre of the cosmos and international law While the critical study of anthropocentrism has been under way for several years it has either focused on specific subfields of international law or emanated from two distinctive strands inspired by the animal rights movement and deep ecology This handbook offers a broader study of anthropocentrism in international law as a global legal system and academic field It assesses the extent to which current international law is anthropocentric contextualises that claim in relation to broader critical theories of anthropocentrism and explores alternative ways for international law to organise relations between humans and other living and non living entities This book will interest international lawyers environmental lawyers legal theorists social theorists and those concerned with the philosophy and ethics of ecology and the non human realms Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Funded by University of Gothenburg and Lund University Posthuman and Political Care Ethics for Reconfiguring Higher Education

Pedagogies Vivienne Bozalek,Michalinos Zembylas,Joan Tronto,2020-11-05 This book makes an important contribution to ongoing debates about the epistemological ethical ontological and political implications of relational ethics in higher education By furthering theoretical developments on the ethics of care and critical posthumanism it speaks to contemporary concerns for more socially just possibilities and enriched understandings of higher education pedagogies The book considers how the political ethics of care and posthuman new feminist materialist ethics can be diffracted through each other and how this can have value for thinking about higher education pedagogies It includes ideas on ethics which push those boundaries that have previously served educational researchers and proposes new ways of conceptualising relational ethics Chapters consider the entangled connections of the linguistic social material ethical political and biological in relation to higher education pedagogies This topical and transdisciplinary book will be of great interest for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of posthuman and care ethics social justice in education higher education and educational theory and policy

Post-Theories in Literary and Cultural Studies Zekiye Antakyalioglu,2022-04-25 Post Theories in Literary and Cultural Studies focuses on the shifting paradigms in literary and cultural studies Prompted by the changes and problems on the global scale the last two decades have seen a resurgence of scholarly interest in theories which are more embedded in the social realities and human condition This volume shows that theory can reinvent theory and re define criticism according to the demands of the new millennium In this context it examines new ways of considering the relation of post theory to the concepts such as ethics aesthetics truth value authenticity human and reality to understand the mindset of the new century This volume presents the various suggestions and concerns of post theoretical studies that reflect the sensibilities of the contemporary social and cultural life The book is a source of reference to develop an understanding of this change of attitude in post theoretical studies towards a more directly and sincerely responsive approach to the current problems worldwide their representations in literature and language reflections in theory roots in socio political domains and effects on the material reality

Debating Biopolitics Piasentier, Marco,Raimondi, Sara,2022-08-05 Emerging out of the theoretical and practical urge to reflect on key contemporary debates arising in biopolitical scholarship this timely book launches an in depth investigation into the concept and history of biopolitics In light of tumultuous political dynamics across the globe and new developments in this continually evolving field the book reconsiders and expands upon Michel Foucault s input to biopolitical studies

Constructive Resistance Mona Lilja,2021-02-05 This book examines constructive resistance practices that range from street protests to the use of photographic images and displays their role in local and global political processes By building on a rich selection of interview material and other empirical research the book elaborates on different cases of constructive resistance where close attention is paid to the productive qualities that are involved It offers new perspectives on the undertakings of different epistemic battles that occur around current issues such as gender nationalism climate change migration and the right to land and explores personal narratives artistic expressions and public statements that are utilized as means of resistance and performed in order to negotiate different established truths More specifically the book discusses the discursive struggles regarding migrant bodies where artifacts that pertain to the hardship are presented in Swedish museums the Preah Vihear temple conflict between Cambodia and Thailand the border conflict in West Sahara the self making of self defined women politicians in Cambodia and climate activism communication Through discussions on the importance of figurations posters narratives photographs artifacts and buildings in the establishing of contemporary discussions and world views the book inquires how and why these representations are re imparted with meaning and the effect that this has The book does not only illustrate different forms of resistance but also contributes theoretically to our understanding of repetitions emotions and time which are properties that must be embarked upon in order to capture the various dimension of resistance Given that the type of constructive resistance that is expanded upon is about processes of significations the time aspect how alternative truths are repeated and thereby established over time becomes crucial And resistance has a temporality of its own for example close authorities are instantly resisted here and now while meaning making resistance suffers from the inescapable time lag of processes of signification In all forms of resistance emotions prevail as an important engine of political struggles and as is displayed in this book emotions are an important means of constructive resistance

The Digital Coloniality of Power Alexander I. Stigl, 2015-12-16 Trouble is afoot in Digital Culture and Nerdland These are Alexander I Stigl claims not the engine of freedom and democracy that they once were hailed to be this much is already clear in the wake of the snooping and surveillance crises that broke in recent years Digitalization is but another version of the coloniality of power and being that has been at work for decades and centuries He poses the question whether Digital Age possess the legitimacy that digitalization has claimed His response is critically realistic but he doesn't stop at a critique for criticism's sake Inspired by the ideas of decolonial scholars feminist science studies current biological and neuro cognitive research and sociologists capable of reflection and self criticism Stigl attempts to break the canvas of sociology and show that adding a third and decolonial dimension to the two dimensional sociological imagination is indeed possible He illustrates that it is possible that class rooms free speech on internet and the inequalities in the production and distribution of a new form of social capital digital cultural health care capital can be subjected to a decolonial perspective along a sociological line of inquiry if sociologists allow for relations with other disciplines and scholarship to be integrative conversations The goal of this book is not to offer results or closed arguments but to create instead platforms for thinking further opening new lines of inquiry and to argue that it is not enough to identify problems or to attempt solve the problems with politics or best practice solutions Instead he proposes we must learn to identify and make use of the opportunities that are produced by any problem Stigl's conclusion is in short that a sociology that takes the decolonial challenge and critique seriously can not be a sociological sub discipline or a sociology of a problem but it must be a sociology of opportunities

Marxist-Feminist Theories and Struggles Today Khayaat Fakier, Diana Mulinari, Nora Räthzel, 2020-02-15 This vital new collection presents new Marxist Feminist analyses of Capitalism as a gendered racialized social formation that shapes and is shaped by specific nature labour relationships Leaving behind former overtly structuralist thinking Marxist Feminist Theories and Struggles Today interweaves strands of ecofeminism and intersectional analyses to develop an understanding of the relations of production and the production of nature through the interdependencies of gender class race and colonial relations With contributions and analyses from scholars and theorists in both the global North and South this volume offers a truly international lens that reveals the the vitality of contemporary global Marxist Feminist thinking as well as its continued relevance to feminist struggles across the globe The Mobility of Memory Luisa Passerini, Milica Trakilović, Gabriele Proglia, 2020-10-06 Migration is most concretely defined by the movement of human bodies but it leaves indelible traces on everything from individual psychology to major social movements Drawing on extensive field research and with a special focus on Italy and the Netherlands this interdisciplinary volume explores the interrelationship of migration and memory at scales both large and small ranging across topics that include oral and visual forms of memory archives and artistic innovations By engaging with the complex tensions between roots and routes minds and bodies The Mobility of Memory offers an incisive and empirically grounded perspective on a social phenomenon that continues to reshape both Europe and the world Postcolonial Transitions in Europe Sandra Ponzanesi, Gianmaria Colpani, 2015-12-14 Is the notion of postcolonial Europe an oxymoron How do colonial pasts inform the emergence of new subjectivities and political frontiers in contemporary Europe Postcolonial Transitions in Europe explores these questions from different theoretical geopolitical and media perspectives Drawing from the interdisciplinary tools of postcolonial critique this book contests the idea that Europe developed within clear cut geographical boundaries It examines how experiences of colonialism and imperialism continue to be constitutive of the European space and of the very idea of Europe By approaching Europe as a complex political space the chapters investigate topical concerns around its politics of inclusion and exclusion towards migrants asylum seekers and refugees as well as its take on internal conflicts transitions and cosmopolitan imaginaries With a foreword by Paul Gilroy
