The Suffering Savior Meditations On The Last Days Of Christ:

The Suffering Savior Friedrich Wilhelm Krummacker, 1856

The Suffering Savior F. W. Krummacker, 2015-01-29

This series of devotional meditations on the final scenes in the life of Christ on earth has been prized by successive generations of Christians ever since its original publication in 1854. Translated almost immediately into English and frequently republished, the book has been described as the greatest single volume of the entire nineteenth century on the last days of Christ's earthly ministry. Krummacker organizes his meditations around the structure of the Old Testament tabernacle. The first section, The Outer Court, covers the time from Jesus' announcement of His approaching death to His discourses on the way to Gethsemane. The central section, the longest, is entitled The Holy Place. It deals with Gethsemane, Judas' betrayal, Peter's denial, all the judicial proceedings, Christ's scourging, and the journey to Calvary. The final section, The Most Holy Place, covers the crucifixion itself, Christ's sayings from the cross, His agony and death, and His burial. This is a book to which all Christians and especially preachers will want to return frequently to have their hearts warmed afresh and their love and zeal for their Saviour rekindled. In the preface to this remarkable volume, F. W. Krummacker described it as a collection of meditations designed to demonstrate a portion of those riches which are contained in the inexhaustible treasury of our Saviour's sufferings. Every Bible student who has had the rare opportunity of studying this book would agree that this is too modest a description of The Suffering Saviour. It is a true and authentic treasure of exceedingly rich comment upon the events of Holy Week, a devotional work of singular beauty of language and depth of spiritual insight. So few have been willing to relinquish their copies that the book has not been obtainable anywhere for many years. My dear readers, let us only place a firm reliance on the word of truth and in its light ascend the precipitous road according to its instructions: proceed forward with firm and steady steps, unmindful of the tumult of the world and not deviating a handbreadth from the way prescribed. Let us meet him who would direct us otherwise with a voice of thunder and exclaim, "Get you behind me, Satan, for you savor not the things that be of God, but those that be of man. The Almighty will then be favorable to us; we shall then carry the peace of God, that choicest pearl in our bosoms, and literal accomplishments of the divine promises which we have taken for our compass, and for a lamp unto our feet, will daily fall upon our path like lights from heaven."

repeated and devout approaches to the sacred table for the sanctification and glorification of our inner man Only let us be careful to appear in true communion attire in child like simplicity and godly poverty of spirit and on our return from the holy place we shall feel ourselves constrained to render heartfelt and joyful thanks unto him who has bought us with his blood and be more than ever resolved to live and die to his praise VII LORD IS IT I We return to the chamber in which our Lord and his disciples had assembled to eat the passover and previous to the institution of the sacred ordinance of which we have been treating We find the disciples in a state of great excitement in consequence of the unexpected announcement which had fallen from the lips of their beloved Master that one of them should betray him The Lord had revealed to them a painfully affecting secret He had told them that among them was an unhappy mortal who would have no part in the kingdom of God and would never see life The blood of the Lamb would not cleanse him from sin nor the righteousness of the Mediator cover him on the contrary he would continue what he was a child of the devil with regard to whom it would have been better had he never been born This reprobate would spurn from him the only ground of salvation betray the Lord of Glory and thus become irrecoverably the subject of death and the curse and hasten to plunge himself into eternal perdition It was this which Jesus
