Four Short Lectures on the Book of the Revelation Benjamin Douglass, 1886 Lectures on Christian Theology. Translated by Leonard Woods Georg Christian KNAPP, 1831 Hagia Sophia and the Byzantine Aesthetic Experience Nadine Schibille, 2016-04-22 Paramount in the shaping of early Byzantine identity was the construction of the church of Hagia Sophia in Constantinople 532-537 CE This book examines the edifice from the perspective of aesthetics to define the concept of beauty and the meaning of art in early Byzantium Byzantine aesthetic thought is re-evaluated against late antique Neoplatonism and the writings of Pseudo Dionysius that offer fundamental paradigms for the late antique attitude towards art and beauty These metaphysical concepts of aesthetics are ultimately grounded in experiences of sensation and perception and reflect the ways in which the world and reality were perceived and grasped signifying the cultural identity of early Byzantium There are different types of aesthetic data those present in the aesthetic object and those found in aesthetic responses to the object This study looks at the aesthetic data embodied in the sixth century architectural structure and interior decoration of Hagia Sophia as well as in literary responses ekphrasis to the building The purpose of the Byzantine ekphrasis was to convey by verbal means the same effects that the artefact itself would have caused A literary analysis of these rhetorical descriptions recaptures the Byzantine perception and expectations and at the same time reveals the cognitive processes triggered by the Great Church The central aesthetic feature that emerges from sixth century ekphraseis of Hagia Sophia is that of light Light is described as the decisive element in the experience of the sacred space and light is simultaneously associated with the notion of wisdom It is argued that the concepts of light and wisdom are interwoven programmatic elements that underlie the unique architecture and non figurative decoration of Hagia Sophia A similar concern for the phenomenon of light and its epistemological dimension is reflected in other contemporary monuments testifying to the pervasiveness of these aesthetic values in early Byzantium

Humanity's Last Stand Nicanor Perlas,2018-07-25 Although still in its earliest stages artificial intelligence AI is radically transforming all aspects of society With the immanent emergence of Artificial Super Intelligence ASI and the illusory temptations of transhumanism mankind stands at a crossroads In Humanity s Last Stand Nicanor Perlas makes an urgent plea It is imperative he says that we take immediate steps to ensure that digitized technology is aligned to human values and priorities Otherwise ASI will kill the essence of our humanity Further if we do not master it now ASI will transform mankind into its own image Ultimately it will destroy the human race AI experts have not offered a single cogent solution to this existential threat Rudolf Steiner however not only foresaw these developments but gave clear alternatives Steiner the founder of a contemporary scientific approach to spirituality provided philosophical ontological and social innovations to save humanity from the abyss It is the task of the global anthroposophical movement to pioneer this civilization saving work to establish spiritual scientific ideas in mainstream culture that would allow AI to emerge in a healthier societal context Perlas gives an overview of the phenomenon of AI together with its related transhuman concepts of perfecting humanity and outlines the critical internal and external responses required to meet them with consciousness In particular he addresses the movement connected to the work of Rudolf Steiner indicating its all important tasks to cooperate with progressive individuals and movements including scientists and civil society activists to mobilize its daughter movements for action and ultimately to cooperate with the spiritual powers

King, 2009-05-07 John Henry later Cardinal Newman is generally known to have been devoted to reading the Church Fathers In this volume Benjamin King draws on archive as well as published material to explore how Newman interpreted specific Fathers at different periods of his life King draws connections between the Alexandrian Fathers Newman was reading and the development of his thought This analysis shows that it was events in Newman s life that changed his interpretation of the Fathers not the interpretation of the Fathers that caused Newman to change his life King argues that Newman tailored his reading trying on the ideas of different Fathers to fit his own needs An innovative comparison of Newman s two translations of Athanasius of Alexandria from 1842 44 and 1881 demonstrates that by 1881 the Cardinal was swayed by the theology favored by Pope Leo XIII King reveals that although Newman was a controversial figure in his own day eventually his view of the Fathers and their doctrines came to be accepted by many scholars This new exploration of his work however shows that the Cardinal s interpretation of the Fathers should still be controversial today The Literary Churchman ,1860 The Sabbath Recorder ,1904
