The Spanish Ambassador's Suitcase Matthew Parris, Andrew Bryson, 2012 The Spanish Ambassador's Suitcase is a hilarious new collection of diplomatic tales by Matthew Parris and Andrew Bryson. Heard the one about the Spanish Ambassador who arrived in the scorching Saharan desert fully suited and with a mysteriously enormous suitcase Or the horse they gave Prime Minister John Major in Turkmenistan which hapless embassy officials had to rescue from the clutches of the Moscow railway These and other funnies as they are known in Whitehall are included in Matthew Parris and Andrew Bryson's glorious new volume of not so diplomatic writing which accompanies a new BBC Radio 4 series is a follow up to their acclaimed collection of ambassadors final despatches Parting Shots Drawn from Freedom of Information requests and previously overlooked Valedictories these startling despatches throw a revealing light on how the British have viewed the world and unwittingly perhaps on how the world has viewed the British Praise for Parting Shots Parting Shots is unbuttoned indiscreet and very funny Yorkshire Post Fascinating if sometimes uncomfortable reading Financial Times Very funny Guardian After working in the Foreign Office then serving as a Conservative MP Matthew Parris joined The Times in 1988 He writes two weekly columns for The Times and one for the Spectator and in 2011 won the Best Columnist Award at the British Press awards His acclaimed autobiography Chance Witness was published by Penguin in 2003 He is a frequent broadcaster Andrew Bryson is a radio journalist working in the BBC's Business and Economic Unit He frequently works as a producer on Radio 4's Today programme and on Radio 5 Live

Social Closure and International Society Tristen Naylor, 2018-12-07 Laying the foundations of a theory of international social closure this book examines how actors compete for a seat at the table in the management of international society and how that competition stratifies the international domain In a broad historical survey from the Family of Civilised Nations through the Great Powers club to the G7 and G20 today Naylor investigates the politics of membership in the exclusive clubs that manage international society and ensure its survival providing us with a new way to think about how status competition has changed over time and what this means for international politics today With its sociologically grounded theory this book advances English School scholarship and transforms the study of contemporary summitry providing a ground breaking approach rooted in archival research elite interviews and ethnographic participant observation This book is of interest to international relations scholars interested in the expansion and globalisation of international society the history of international summits and transformations in international order as well as to those examining concepts including stratification hierarchy and networked governance. With its emphasis on non state actors in global governance scholars and practitioners alike working on for civil society will also find this research of great value. King of Kings Asfa-Wossen Asserate, 2015-09-15 Haile Selassie I the last emperor of Ethiopia was as brilliant as he was formidable. An early proponent of African unity and independence who claimed to be a descendant of King Solomon he fought with the Allies against the Axis powers during World War II and was a messianic figure for the Jamaican Rastafarians. But the final years of his empire saw turmoil and revolution and he was ultimately overthrown and assassinated in a communist coup. Written by Asfa Wossen Asserate Haile Selassie's grandnephew this is the first major biography of this final king of kings. Asserate who spent his childhood and adolescence in Ethiopia before fleeing the revolution of 1974 knew Selassie personally and gained intimate insights into life at the imperial court. Introducing him as a reformer and an autocrat whose personal history with all of its upheavals promises and horrors reflects in many ways the history of the twentieth century itself Asserate uses his own experiences and painstaking research in family and public archives to achieve a colorful and even handed portrait of the emperor. Diplomatic Bags Pietro Quaroni, 1966
