Welnic, Jacek Fisiak, 2008 This is a collection of essays to celebrate 45 years of Professor Aleksander Szwedek's academic endeavour and his impressive contribution to the development of linguistics in Poland and abroad The articles seek to represent an eclectic range of topics in linguistics literature and cultural studies They reflect the versatile and influential nature of Professor Szwedek's work and have been contributed by colleagues and former pupils now active in a variety of academic fields within English studies All have been inspired in various ways by the work and teaching of Aleksander Szwedek

The West and the Rest Ross, Ian, 2025-09-22 We tend to view the world beyond these shores on the basis of what the media make of it whether the media of words or of images and long considered or instant Ian Ross offers a welcome change of perspective He spent his career as a senior executive in two controversial industrial sectors tobacco and oil and necessarily sees the world through the lens of business The West and the Rest examines what he gained that we can learn from

Marketing Graffiti Michael Saren, 2013-05-13 Rejecting the managerially driven structures normally imposed on the subject Saren explains marketing from the perspective of the pivotal figure in the process the consumer He addresses readers as active consumers and producers of marketing and therefore already well equipped to appreciate the rationale and practice behind the process Critically examining the wide range of products businesses technologies information services ads packaging and branding Saren utilizes everyday images and phenomena to draw out the conceptual foundations of marketing in its social and cultural context that we all experience By taking this alternative approach linking the abstract concepts to the everyday world the reader already knows Marketing Graffiti explains marketing as consumers experience it as active participants in it reflecting the variety in the bricollage subject that is marketing

Proven Solutions for Improving Supply Chain Performance C. Carl Pegels, 2005-06-01 Proven Solutions for Improving Supply Chain Performance is a collection of about 175 descriptions of scientific management studies in the management of supply chains Each one of the descriptions of the scientific studies is presented in readable and understandable form for individuals who probably have not had the statistical and scientific education and training to fully understand the underlying studies The book is significantly different from the popular management literature which is generally based on armchair theories that have little basis on fact and seldom have been scientifically verified Although the book is targeted for the supply chain manager administrator it can also be used as a supplementary reader in such courses as Operations Management Service Systems Management Manufacturing Management Purchasing Management and of course in Supply Chain Management courses

Tales from the Marketplace Nigel F. Piercy, 2012-10-02 Tales from the Marketplace Stories of Revolution Reinvention and Renewal is a highly innovative approach to building an understanding of the realities of market led strategic change in companies It provides an engaging honest and effective understanding of real market strategy in major organizations by focussing on the forces behind value driven strategy Nigel Piercy provides new and incisive insights into strategy and marketing through business stories that are contemporary and provocative These new stories depict how major organizations have experienced revolution in their traditional markets created by new types of competitors with new business models The search for superior value is overtaking traditional brand and relationship strategies The challenge to companies is reinvention and renewal and the alternative is obsolescence and decline After all did the major banks really expect to be competing with supermarkets car companies Virgin and internet based companies to provide retail bank services The book is based on the author's view that Business is exciting turbulent and unpredictable the stories we read and study should be too From Dell Computers and easyJet to Amazon com and Skoda Cars it is the most innovative companies that have most to teach us about reinvention and new business models The inflexible analytical frameworks of the past no longer apply stories of reinvention and renewal show the creative strategies developed by companies to cope with threats and exploit opportunities around them Tales from the Marketplace is essential timely and designed to be highly readable for managers It also provides an innovative approach for undergraduate and MBA level teachers and students and for participants on executive programmes in marketing and strategic management
