Question 1

How do Jem and Scout change during the course of the novel? How do they remain the same? Support your answer.

Question 2

Many people have a problem with students reading this book in public schools due to the violence, the topic (rape), and the language. Should it be taught in public schools because there are valuable lessons that can be learned, or should it be banned because of the violence and language? Why? Support your answer.

Question 3

Racism is the most important theme in this book, without it there would not be much of a story. What are some examples of racism in the novel? How does it affect the story? How have views changed since this book was written in the 1950s? Is it any better, just the same, or worse? Support your answer.

Question 4

Atticus advises the children that "shooting a mockingbird is a sin because all they do is bring joy to people." Who do you think best represents the mockingbird in the novel and why? Support your answer.

Question 5

Analyze this quote: "Atticus was right. One time he said you never really know a man until you stand in his shoes and walk around in them. Just standing on the Radley porch was enough." (374) Support your ideas with evidence from the novel.
