ones GI News, 2003 Designing for Service Daniela Sangiorgi, Alison Prendiville, 2017-02-23 Service design is the activity of planning and organizing people infrastructure communication and material components of a service in order to improve its quality and the interaction between service provider and customers It is now a growing field of both practice and academic research Designing for Service brings together a wide range of international contributors to map the field of service design and identify key issues for practitioners and researchers such as identity ethics and accountability Designing for Service aims to problematize the field in order to inform a more critical debate within service design thereby supporting its development beyond the pure methodological discussions that currently dominate the field The contributors to this innovative volume consider the practice of service design ethical challenges designers may encounter and the new spaces opened up by the advent of modern digital technologies Cultural Economies of Locative Media Rowan Wilken, 2019 Location location awareness and location data have all become familiar and increasingly significant parts of our everyday mobile mediated experiences Cultural Economies of Locative Media examines the ways in which location based services such as GPS enabled mobile smartphones are socially culturally economically and politically produced just as much as they are technically designed and manufactured Rowan Wilken explores the complex interrelationships that mutually define new business models and the economic factors that emerge around and structure locative media services Further he offers readers insight into the diverse social uses cultures of consumption and policy implications of location providing a detailed critical account of contemporary location sensitive mobile data Cultural Economies of Locative Media delves into the ideas technologies contexts and power relationships that define this scholarship resulting in a rich portrait of locative media in all of its cultural and economic complexity Cemeterians Jack W. Plunkett, 2008 Franklin Jack Marla Thadius and Caitlin this unlikely group of assorted misfits are the Cemeterians a group that will take on any job no really we mean any bloody job money s a bit tight right now Trudge through disgusting sewers to battle manatee massacring mermaids and soggy cultists creep through creepy fog littered cemeteries straight out of an ancient Hammer Film soundstage confront undead lecherous lodgers and other assorted beasties creepies and ghoulies It all comes down to whether an adolescent giant Automaton a truly mad Mad Scientist a surly Necromancer a Banshee s granddaughter and a reluctant furry monster straight from under your little sister s bed can manage not to kill each other or at least quit fighting over the tele privilege schedule long enough to get the job done Not likely The Financial Times Guide to Social Media Strategy Martin Thomas, 2018-12-05 The Financial Times Guide to Social Media Strategy Map-Based Mobile Services Liqiu Meng, Alexander Zipf, 2005 The book is divided into three parts theory method and implementation Starting with a summary of the state of the art in mobile technologies the first part analyses their impacts on cartography and pinpoints the missing theories concerned with the development of map based mobile services A conceptual framework of mobile cartography is then introduced with the emphasis on mobile usage context The second part is devoted to the design methodology under the constraints defined in the theoretical framework A core issue deals with personalised mobile map services The final part demonstrates the feasibility of the methods by using application scenarios The accompanying CD ROM contains the PDF Files in colour

The Interface between Competition Law and Data Privacy Law Arletta Gorecka,2024-10-24 This book assesses the extent to which the current EU competition law framework can incorporate privacy related theories of harm Specifically it evaluates the importance of protecting individual privacy in establishing exploitative abuse of dominance under Article 102 TFEU The book explores scenarios where Big Tech firms exploit their dominant positions through excessive data collection or limiting consumer choice thereby harming competition and directly affecting user well being It posits that zero priced business models of online platforms and the ubiquity of data generation create strong incentives to acquire and process consumer data which can harm digital consumers privacy The book assesses how the existing EU competition law framework can address and regulate exploitative abuses particularly concerning the protection of individuals privacy Importantly this book argues that competition law might recognize privacy related harms as forming exploitative theories of harm under Article 102 TFEU Article 102 TFEU offers flexibility and can be applied to a broader range of unfair practices Article 102 TFEU emphasizes enhanced transparency and predictability aiming to prevent abuses of dominant positions that could undermine healthy competition to the detriment of consumers and other market participants This book provides a comprehensive analysis of how the existing EU competition law framework can address the evolving challenges at the intersection of competition and privacy ultimately seeking to protect consumer welfare and ensure fair competition in the digital economy

Effective use of today's powerful GIS technology requires an understanding of the science of problem solving that underpins it Since the first edition published over a decade ago this book has led the way with its focus on the scientific principles that support GIS usage It has also provided thorough upto date coverage of GIS procedures techniques and public policy applications This unique combination of science technology and practical problem solving has made this book a best seller across a broad spectrum of disciplines This fully updated 4th edition continues to deliver on these strengths Navigating the New Retail Landscape Alan Treadgold, Jonathan Reynolds, 2020-11-26 The global retail industry is in the early stages of an era of profound and unprecedented change This book is intended to serve as a wide ranging robust and practical guide to leaders of enterprises tasked with both understanding and delivering success in the new landscape of retailing Part 1 describes the major directions and drivers of change that define the new retail landscape Accelerating changes in technology the rise to international prominence of internet enabled shoppers and the rapid emergence of entirely new retail enterprises and business models are combining to re shape the very fundamentals of the retail industry No longer are shops central or even necessary to the business of retailing No longer is choice for the shopper limited to the neighbourhood town or even country in which they live No longer is the act of retailing solely the preserve of traditional retail enterprises as internet enabled businesses technology logistics suppliers and financial services enterprises all seek direct relationships with the shopper The new landscape of retailing is an unforgiving one Success can be achieved more quickly than ever before but failure is equally rapid New opportunities are profound but so too are the challenges Part 2 of this book discusses the structures skills and capabilities that retail enterprises and their leaders will need if they are to be successful This second edition presents more than 25 detailed case studies of innovative and successful enterprises alongside more than one hundred smaller examples to illustrate the themes discussed A new afterword also presents ten central areas business leaders must focus on in order to build organizational resilience in the wake of COVID 19 and the profound uncertainties retail enterprises now face Frameworks and practical guidance are offered to help readers contextualise the nature of change occurring on a global scale and identify the capabilities skills and perspectives that will be needed at both an enterprise and a personal leadership level Breaking Away Maurice E. Stucke, 2022 Breaking Away sounds a warning call alerting readers that their privacy and autonomy concerns are indeed warranted and the remedies deserve far greater attention than they have received from our leading policymakers and experts to date Through the various prisms of economic theory market data policy and law the book offers a clear and accessible insight into how a few powerful firms Google Apple Facebook Meta and Amazon have used the same anticompetitive playbook and manipulated the current legal regime for their gain at our collective expense While much has been written about these four companies power far less has been said about addressing their risks In looking at the proposals to date however policymakers and scholars have not fully addressed three fundamental issues First will more competition necessarily promote our privacy and well being Second who owns the personal data and is that even the right question Third what are the policy implications if personal data is non rivalrous Breaking Away not only articulates the limitations of the current enforcement and regulatory approach but offers concrete proposals to promote competition without having to sacrifice our privacy This book explores how these platforms accumulated their power why the risks they pose are far greater than previously believed and why the tools need to be far more robust than what is being proposed Policymakers scholars and business owners managers and entrepreneurs seeking to compete and innovate in the digital platform economy will find the book an invaluable source of information The Future of Commercial Law Orkun Akseli, John Linarelli, 2020-04-16 The reform of commercial law through harmonisation unification codification and other means remains one of the most important projects in developing the institutional architecture for the global economy This edited collection engages with the challenges and contributes to a greater understanding of the problems faced by states international organisations and private sector actors in this ongoing reform project for commercial law The volume takes stock of the project to date and looks towards a restructuring of the agenda to deal with new challenges The primary aim of the collection is to understand the future of commercial law reform in a way that offers ideas and strategies for innovation as well as in methodologies for project selection and evaluation In so doing the collection informs the debate on the global reform of commercial law and will be of interest not only to academics but also to those involved in the reform of commercial law around the world The volume collects papers presented at the UK Society of Legal Scholars Annual Seminar 2017 New Mega Trends S.
