Playing in a first class match gives a cricketer a certain cachet For ever after opponents know that such and such played big cricket and will expect him to perform accordingly Even when his achievements lie elsewhere biographers and obituarists will sagely note his appearances however limited and readers will infer that the subject has a special talent for the game Nine thousand cricketers have played in just one first class match but for some their one appearance was more memorable than for others for good reasons or otherwise In 1924 Fred Hyland spent less than ten minutes on the field of play before rain washed out the game Poor Josiah Coulthurst didn t even step onto the playing area in a damp Lancashire contest in 1919 Emile McMaster s only match in South Africa in 1889 was later awarded Test match status Bob Richards playing for Essex at Leyton in 1970 didn t learn till afterwards that his solitary appearance was a first class game Nobody can now be sure who was the Wilkinson who played a match at Oxford in 1939 Some one match wonders have achieved much in their brief days in front of the cricket watching public centuries even and eight fors others have gone on to exceptional achievements in fields
